

and shorts, which are referred to in the complaint filed in the above-entitled action.

3. Said clothing and personal effects were transferred to the United States of America for deposit in the National Archives of the United States by the executors of the estate of the late President John F. Kennedy by letter agreement dated October 29, 1966, executed by Burke Marshall, on behalf of the executors of the estate of John F. Kennedy, and by Lawson B. Knott, Jr., Administrator of General Services, on behalf of the United States of America. A copy of said letter agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit A. As authorized by section 507(e)(1) of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949 (44 U.S.C. 357(e)(1)), said letter agreement, the validity of which has never been challenged by the Government of the United States, contains restrictions on the inspection of or access to said clothing. Said restrictions having been accepted on behalf of the United States of America, compliance therewith is required by the letter agreement and by law.

4. Pursuant to said agreement, access to the articles of clothing and personal effects is limited to certain Government officials and to serious scholars or investigators of matters relating to the death of the late President for purposes relevant to their study thereof, and the Administrator of General Services is authorized to deny requests for access, or to impose conditions he deems appropriate on access, in order to prevent undignified or sensational reproduction of the articles of clothing (paragraph I(2)). The agreement also provides that, in order to preserve these articles against possible damage, the Administrator is authorized to photograph or otherwise reproduce them for purposes of examination, in lieu of the originals, by such persons as are authorized to have access thereto (paragraph III(1)). In addition, the Administrator is authorized to impose such other restrictions on access to and inspection of said articles of clothing as he deems necessary and appropriate to fulfill the objectives of the agreement and his statutory responsibility under the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949 to provide for the preservation, arrangement, and use of said materials transferred to his custody for archival administration (paragraph VI).

5. Paragraph VII of the letter agreement provides that all "duties, obligations and discretions" of the Administrator under the agreement may be delegated to the Archivist of the United States. As stated above, as Archivist of the United States, I have been delegated such authority. Pursuant thereto I have determined that serious scholars or investigators authorized to have access pursuant to paragraph I(2)(b) may view photographs of said articles of clothing, but may not inspect or examine the articles of clothing themselves.

6. The National Archives and Records Service, through the National Archives and the Presidential Libraries, for which it is responsible, performs a very valuable service both for important public figures who give their papers and other historical materials to the United States and for scholars who will eventually use these materials as basic sources for research. It provides secure storage for the papers and other historical materials and a professional staff to arrange and index such papers and other historical materials so as to make them more useful to scholars who will use them. The authority of the National Archives and Records Service to accept such gifts of papers and other historical materials subject to whatever conditions of limited access may be requested by the donor ensures that, during the period when a degree of sensitivity attaches to discussion of events and personalities, the rights of privacy of the donor and of persons discussed in the papers are fully protected. It also ensures that valuable collections of papers and other historical materials will be saved and, with the passage of an appropriate period of time, will be made available to writers.

scholars, and other interested persons for research use. To permit the confidential restrictions to be violated would completely destroy public confidence in the Federal Government's ability and willingness to honor its commitments to donors of papers, oral history transcripts, and other historical materials. If this confidence is destroyed, the validity of the whole concept of the National Archives and Presidential Libraries will be placed in question, and the future development of these and similar institutions will be imperiled. For, if public figures no longer can be assured that their interests will be protected when their papers and other historical materials are deposited in public institutions, they will cease to place important and sensitive materials in such institutions. The result will be a drying up of basic research resources in history, economics, public administration, and the social sciences generally, and consequent damage to the cause of education, culture, and public enlightenment.

7. The showing of photographs of the areas on the clothing of the late President Kennedy that were damaged by a bullet is adequate for research purposes, complies with the terms of the letter agreement with the Kennedy family, and avoids any possible violation of the letter agreement. It seems probable that requests to see the clothing itself would be for the purpose of satisfying personal curiosity rather than for research purposes. If the National Archives undertook to show the clothing itself, a determination would have to be made concerning each person who requested permission to see the clothing as to whether he was a "serious scholar or investigator of matters relating to the death of the late President" and whether his request was "for purposes relevant to his study thereof." This might have to be done on short notice and with inadequate information concerning the person involved, or in the alternative a procedure of requiring written applications and the submission of credentials by the applicant might have to be instituted.

8. In regard to the request of the Plaintiff to be allowed to take his own photographs of the clothing of the late President, this procedure would make it impossible for the National Archives to be sure of preventing violation of the terms of the letter agreement by "undignified or sensational reproduction" of the clothing. The Plaintiff already has photographs in his possession which should be adequate for any research purpose he may have in mind. This includes a photographic print of FBI Exhibit 60 in Commission Document 107, an electrostatic copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit B. Referring to this exhibit, the Plaintiff says in paragraph 31 of the Addendum to his Complaint, "The Department of Justice has given Plaintiff prints of such pictures which are of the kind which permit enlargement without distortion."

9. Plaintiff has never specifically requested permission to examine the above-mentioned articles of clothing, nor has he specifically requested permission to photograph the above-mentioned articles of clothing. Consequently, the National Archives and Records Service has never denied such requests.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 28th day of September, 1970.

October 29, 1966

Honorable Lawson B. Knott, Jr.
Administrator of General Services
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Knott:

The family of the late President John F. Kennedy shares the concern of the Government of the United States that the personal effects of the late President which were gathered as evidence by the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy, as well as certain other materials relating to the assassination, should be deposited, safeguarded and preserved in the Archives of the United States as materials of historical importance. The family desires to prevent the undignified or sensational use of these materials (such as public display) or any other use which would tend in any way to dishonor the memory of the late President or cause unnecessary grief or suffering to the members of his family and those closely associated with him. We know the Government respects these desires.

Accordingly, pursuant to the provisions of 44 U.S.C. 397(c)(1), the executors of the estate of the late President John F. Kennedy hereby transfer to the Administrator of General Services, acting for and on behalf of the United States of America, for deposit in the National Archives of the United States, all of their right, title, and interest in all of the personal clothing of the late President now in the possession of the United States Government and identified in Appendix A, and in certain x-rays and photographs connected with the autopsy of the late President referred to in Appendix B, and the Administrator accepts the same, for and in the name of the United States, for deposit in the National Archives of the United States, subject to the following restrictions, which shall continue in effect during the lives of the late President's widow, daughter, son, parents, brothers and sisters, or any of them:

I.

(1) None of the materials identified in Appendix A ("the Appendix A materials") shall be placed on public display.

(2) Access to the Appendix A materials shall be permitted only to:

(a) Any person authorized to act for a committee of the Congress, for a Presidential committee or commission, or for any other official agency of the United States Government, having authority to investigate matters relating to the death of the late President, for purposes within the investigative jurisdiction of such committee, commission or agency.

(b) Any serious scholar or investigator of matters relating to the death of the late President, for purposes relevant to his study thereof. The Administrator shall have full authority to deny requests for access, or to impose conditions he deems appropriate on access, in order to prevent undignified or sensational reproduction of the Appendix A materials. The Administrator may seek the advice of the Attorney General or any person designated by the Attorney General with respect to the Administrator's responsibilities under this paragraph I(2)(b).

II

(1) None of the materials referred to in Appendix B ("the Appendix B materials") shall be placed on public display.

(2) Access to the Appendix B materials shall be permitted only to:

(a) Any person authorized to act for a committee of the Congress, for a Presidential committee or commission, or for any other official agency of the United States Government, having authority to investigate matters relating to the death of the late President, for purposes within the investigative jurisdiction of such committee, commission or agency.

(b) Any recognized expert in the field of pathology or related areas of science or technology, for serious purposes relevant to the investigation of matters relating to the death of the late President; provided, however, that no access to the Appendix B materials pursuant to this paragraph II(2)(b) shall be authorized until five years after the date of this agreement except with the consent of the Kennedy family representative designated pursuant to paragraph IV(2). For the purposes of this paragraph, the determination of whether such an expert has suitable qualifications and serious purposes shall be made by the Kennedy family representative. No access shall be authorized pursuant to this paragraph II(2)(b) during the lives of the individuals referred to in the second paragraph of this agreement for any purpose involving reproduction or publication of the Appendix B materials without the consent of the Kennedy family representative, who shall have full authority to deny requests for access, or to impose conditions he deems appropriate on access, in order to prevent such use of the Appendix B materials.

III

(1) In order to preserve the Appendix A materials and the Appendix B materials against possible damage, the Administrator is authorized to photograph or otherwise reproduce any of such materials for purposes of examination in lieu of the originals by persons authorized to have access pursuant to paragraph I(2) or paragraph II(2).

(2) The Administrator may condition access under paragraph I(2)(b) or paragraph II(2)(b) to any of the materials transferred hereunder, or any reproduction thereof, upon agreement to comply with applicable restrictions specified in this agreement.

IV

(1) The Administrator shall be entitled to consult with the Kennedy family representative designated pursuant to paragraph IV(2), and to rely upon such representative's statements in writing as representing the views of the Kennedy family, in connection with the construction or application of this agreement in a particular case.

(2) The Kennedy family representative for the purposes of this agreement shall be BURKE MARSHALL. A successor representative of the Kennedy family may be designated in writing to the Administrator from time to time by Mrs. John F. Kennedy. In the event of the death or disability of Mrs. John F. Kennedy, any successor shall be designated by Robert F. Kennedy. In the event of the death or disability of both Mrs. John F. Kennedy and

Robert F. Kennedy, any such designation shall be made by Edward M. Kennedy. In the event of the death or disability of all three of them, any such designation shall be made by any adult child of the late President John F. Kennedy or by any of the late President's sisters, with the advice of other members of the family. Any representative designated hereunder will serve until a successor is designated.

V

This agreement may be amended, modified, or terminated only by written consent of the Administrator and the Kennedy family representative designated pursuant to paragraph IV(2).

VI

The Administrator shall impose such other restrictions on access to and inspection of the materials transferred hereunder, and take such further actions as he deems necessary and appropriate (including referral to the Department of Justice for appropriate legal action), to fulfill the objectives of this agreement and his statutory responsibility under the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, as amended, to provide for the preservation, arrangement and use of materials transferred to his custody for archival administration.

All duties, obligations and discretions herein conferred upon the Administrator shall inure to each holder of the office of Administrator of General Services from time to time, and to any official of the United States Government who may become successor to the functions of archival administration vested in the Administrator under the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, as amended. All such duties, obligations and discretions may be delegated to the Archivist of the United States, or to any successor to his functions of archival administration.

Please indicate your acceptance on behalf of the United States of America by executing the acceptance clause below.

Sincerely,

Burke Marshall, on behalf of the Executors of the Estate of John F. Kennedy
