Re; C.A. 2569-70

Clerk of the Courts, Civil Federal District Court for the District of Columbia
U.S. Court House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir,

Yesterday I filed two sets of papers in the above-caption action in which I am the plaintiff. The ribbon copy had a set of exhibits attached. The carbon copy did not.

Inadvertently, I forget to leave the enclosed xeroxes of these exhibits for the carbon-copy set. I had just had them xeroxed in Washington and forgot they were in a separate envelope.

My apologies for this accident. I would appreciate it if you would attach the enclosed exhibits to the carbon copy.

My stapler will not go all the way through these papers. I have therefore stapled them from both sides. I have also added a paperclip for security.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
