

December 17, 1968

Honorable Ramsey Clark
The Attorney General
Department of Justice
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Clark:

The National Archives has repeatedly denied me access to those withheld documents in the Warren Commission material relating to the late David W. Ferris. Under date of December 11, Acting Archivist of the United States Herbert E. Angel again refers this request to you.

In the past and the recent past, the replies of the Justice Department to my inquiries have not been really responsive. However, I try again. I would like access to those materials under your authority relating to the late David W. Ferris and withheld by order of your department.

Specifically, I particularly want what is identified as Commission Document 75, folio 301.

If you deny this request and if any special forms or papers are required under the applicable law, I ask you to send them to me with instructions for carrying this further. My previous requests along this line have been ignored.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
