Shaheen and the alterneys have been assumed to Memphis for two and a lide to three weeks "to go over all of the flow - and they are extensive -- in the Mataphia FB1 of the in consponent with the King assassination."

Then, he said files we all of the 59 field offices of the FBI also will be probed as we understand there is material in all of the ideal offices concerning the assassination."

The first seven weeks of the probe, said Shaheen who plans to return to Memphis in a few years to set up a private law practice, have been spent poring over the FBI files in the Washington headquarters and the field office.

After all his same probed, Shaheen said invertigations will return the ophis to talk to all of the FBI access here who were connected with the King investigation as well as all perman, interviewed by the agents.

"This is going to be an exhaustive probe, he send "We are going to look into everything in connection with the King assassination that the ordinary cittien could think should be looked into as well as much more We will be tracing Jame. Farl Ray's movements, looking and all conspiracies, theories and the like."

Shaheen, whose father he said is a "country doctor" in Como, said he has appointed Fred Folsom as head of the task force "He is a veteran of the civil mobil. Jimiston, criminal division and criminal tax division in to department, said Shaheen Folsom is in Memphis works. It on the task.

Shaheen said 10 persons are now assigned to probe their more will be added as needed. We have all the resonances of the appartment at our command for a full scale, in-depth probe."

The probe will said Shaheen, not only investigate "the FBI's investigation," but also concentrate on the assassination itself "because of what has now been described as 16 years of harrassment of Dr. King on the FBI's part."

So far, said Shaheen "nothing exciting," has been "turned up yet," but "we're finding a lot that is antorection."

Shaheen, who was elected mayor of Como when he was 29 and left to sen the Justice Department three years ago, said he expects the overall probe to go on "for a fews more months. Results, he said, will be reported directly to the Attorn a General's office and the director of the FB4.
