TRANSLATOR'S SUMMARY OF COMMUNICATION

Language: Dutch
Date of Communication: April 6, 1968
Addressed to: The President
Name and address of writer: (Mrs.) J. M. E. van Beek
Marius Bauerstraat 21, huis
Amsterdam (W3)
The Netherlands

Substance of writer's statement:

A television report was made in Memphis last week by K.R.O. Television. In the film appears a young, blond man, who apparently does not belong to Dr. King's entourage and is not a policeman.

The writer believes that he could be the murder suspect and thinks that it would be a good idea to show the film to Mrs. Bessie Brewer, the owner of the motel in which Dr. King was shot.

The original film can be obtained from Studio "Vitus", Bussum, The Netherlands, but she thinks that the American television is in possession of a duplicate.

The enclosed letters were received by "REGISTERED MAIL" at the White House.

LYNDON B. JOHNSON,

PRESIDENT van de VERENIGDE STATEN

van AMERIKA.

WASHINGTON (U.S.A.).

AMSTERDAM, Zaterdag, 6 April 1968.

Mijnheer de President,

Allereerst bied ik U mijn verontschuldiging aan voor het feit, dat ik U deze brief in de Nederlandse taal zend; de reden is, dat mijn kennis van de Engelse taal (helaas) ontoereikend is.

Gaarne verzoek ik Uw aandacht voor het volgende:

Heden, Zaterdag 6 April 1968, werd hier in Nederland een kort filmpje gedraaid, dat deze week in Memphis was opgenomen door een ploeg van "BRANDPUNT", K.R.O.-televisie, Nederland, (verslaggever: de heer Willebrord Nieuwenhuis), in samenwerking met de Amerikaanse televisie, en dat één dag uit het leven van Ds. Martin Luther KING liet zien.

Er waren opname-momenten van toespraken van Ds. M.L. King in verschillende bijeenkomsten, waarbij ik meende op te merken, dat éénzelfde, blonde, blanke jongeman, 2X aanwezig was (op één dag!), maar, volgens mij:

1e: NIET tot de "aanhangers" van Ds. King gerekend kon worden, daar hij géén instemming betuigde met Ds. King's woorden; integendeel: hij bleef hem strak aanstaren;

2e: NIET iemand was, die Ds. King "bewaakte", immers dan zou hij juist op de omstanders en het publiek hebben moeten letten!!

Nogmaals: het filmpje was kort, en het fragment waarop ik die blanke voor de 2e maal onder het publiek meende op te merken, was óók spoedig afgedraaid. Helaas bleek mij bij informatie, dat dit filmpje waarschijnlijk niet meer zal worden vertoond, dus is controle mijnerzijds op bovenstaande onmogelijk.

BLAD 2.

AMSTERDAM, Zaterdag, 6 April 1968.

t filmpje bevindt zich in de STUDIO " VITUS ", te BUSSUM (NEDERLAND), ar ongetwijfeld bezit de Amerikaanse T.V. de originele opname, of, elk geval, een duplicaat hiervan.

s Mevrouw BESSIE BREWER, de eigenaresse van 't pension, waar de moordenaar geweest, in de gelegenheid zou zijn dit filmpje te zien, zou ZIJ misschien kerheid kunnen verschaffen over deze man.

cht zij hem herkennen, dan zoudt U een zéér duidelijke foto van hem nnen laten verspreiden.

t bovenstaande iets zal kunnen bijdragen tot identificatie van de ordenaar weet ik niet, maar wel hoop ik vurig, dat de dader van deze laffe nslag, die waarschijnlijk veel nare gevolgen zal hebben, ten spoedigste ijn gerechte straf zal ondergaan!

DATE: May 27, 1968

FROM : Regional Security Office, Pretoria

SUBJECT: PAY, James Earl; SI/FBI (4)

The information on Subject was sent to PSO Salisbury, with a copy of your memorandum dated 14 May 1968. Results of talks will be forwarded to you as soon as possible.

The RSO took the liberty of supplying the same information to the [redacted] will abide by the request for no publicity, and will coordinate their efforts with the [redacted] who have regular liaison personnel in Pretoria.

The information was given to [redacted] on the outside chance that Subject may have changed his mind at the last minute, if he intended to go to Rhodesia, because it would be easy to lose himself in South Africa, unless he created a disturbance, rather than go to Rhodesia where he had, in the past, openly declared that he wished to emigrate. However, both [redacted] in Rhodesia and South Africa are quite efficient and will arrive at some conclusion in the near future. Their reports will be forwarded promptly.

ENCLOSURE

OPERATIONS MEMORANDUM

TO: Department of State (O/SY) DATE: May 31, 1968
Attention: Mr. Robert L. Berry
FROM: Amconsul CURACAO
SUBJECT: SECURITY: James Earl RAY
REF: SY Memorandum to Curacao, Attention Post Security Officer dated 5/15/68

The assistance of Inspector J. F. Oldenboom was solicited in connection with the referenced inquiry. A detailed search of the immigration records for the island of Curacao revealed that neither James Earl Ray nor anyone using his various aliases entered or departed Curacao during the month of April 1968.

Inspector Oldenboom had subject's photographs duplicated and members of the Curacao police department canvassed hotels and rooming houses in an effort to locate anyone who had seen anyone resembling the subject. The results were completely negative. However, there are a few small hotels and pensions still to be visited.

At the Lido Restaurant a waiter, according to Inspector Oldenboom, recalled seeing a man in late April at the restaurant whose appearance corresponded to the picture exhibited to him. He did not recall seeing the man standing so could venture no opinion as to his height. He described him as being approximately age 40, somewhat heavy set, and with black hair. He spoke English "like an American." He recalled that the man ordered, in addition to a Chinese dinner, I.W. Harper bourbon. He stated that this was unusual as he serves very little bourbon and that he had never recalled having had it ordered by brand name before. According to the waiter two women, one a blond and one with black hair, approximately age 40, came into the Lido Restaurant and joined the man in question. The only thing he recalls about the women is that one of them, he could not recall which, had a gold ankle bracelet. The waiter reportedly recalled another unusual fact. He said the man smoked Chesterfield cigarettes which were in a red package with the word "Chesterfield" in white and "01" on the cover. He said he had never seen this type of cigarette package before.

A bartender of the Lido of Chinese extraction who works evenings recalled that in late April or early May, a man closely resembling subject sat at the bar for about 20 minutes and had a whiskey and a beer. Inspector Oldenboom said the bartender did not say whether the whiskey was I. W. Harper bourbon or not, but that he would endeavor to ascertain if the bartender could recall more details concerning that fact.

Inspector Oldenboen inquired if there would be any objection to having some of his men check with the police in Aruba to see if the subject was, or had been, on that island and was assured that there was no objection. Inspector Oldenboen promised to promptly report any pertinent, relevant material developments. If any are forthcoming the Department will be informed.

Colombia

For whatever it may be worth Peace Corps Volunteer Patrick Mertens has reported to us that he may have been in contact with the killer of Dr. Martin Luther King.

See 44-1467-114

A man who identified himself as Chuck Kintner resided with Mertens for 2 1/2 days from May 21 to 23 in the latter's home in Mandano, Cauca. Mandano is on the Pan American Highway in southwestern Colombia midway between Cali and Popayan.

APPROX 1944

Mertens became suspicious of Kintner for a number of reasons. One of the first questions he was asked on meeting Kintner on May 21 concerned the finding of the killer of Dr. King. He showed Kintner a New York Times article on the killing and Kintner took an unusually long time to read it. In the 2 1/2 days they were together Kintner showed an inordinate interest in discussing the King murder, man's instinct to kill and the ease of killing. Although Mertens has befriended many other American tourists passing through Mandano by permitting them to stay in his home this was the first time he had "felt a strange fear as if I were in the company of a killer or at least a potentially dangerous person." Another oddity was Kintner's tendency to wipe everything he touched.

Mexico
Calif.
Vietnam
Ariz.

Kintner is described as being about 69 or 70 inches tall and weighing about 160 pounds. He has light brown hair of medium length, plain features, light complexion, full eyebrows and a bushy mustache. Although he said he was 24 years old he could be at least five years older. After adding a mustache to a picture of the alleged assassin Mertens stated that the results closely resembled Kintner.

Kintner informed Martens that he had entered Colombia at Cartagena from Vera Cruz, Mexico, on a freighter on May 1. He had visited several cities in Colombia and implied that he was enroute to Ecuador. (DAS in Cartagena has no record of a Chuck or Charles Kintner.)

Kintner claimed that he was from California (although he has a slight southern accent), had served in the Marine Corps until January, 1966 and had spent six months in Vietnam. He also informed Martens that he had attended the University of California in Berkely and had received an M.B.A. from the University of Arizona after leaving the Marine Corps. He further stated that he had been employed by the Ford Motor Company at an undesignated place prior to leaving the United States in April. (Martens associated this with the Ford Mustang apparently used by the King murderer).

It appears that Kintner left the United States shortly after the assassination, wandered down to Mexico and then to Colombia. He gave no reason for his meandering but did not appear to be lacking in funds.

When last seen by Martens he was bumming a ride to Pasto and was dressed in Marine boots and fatigues. He carried a large maroon canvas suitcase. Since he claimed that he had associated with Peace Corps personnel in Ibague and near Medellin, he may look for other volunteers in Ecuador.

The above description of Kintner may not be too exact since Martens was unable to describe him without my continued prodding.

In view of my skepticism the foregoing has not been reported to the Department.

1. DESPITE EXTENSIVE PUBLICITY IN INTERNATIONAL PRESS OF PRESENCE IN PORTUGAL FOR SOME DAYS IN MAY OF ALLEGED KILLER OF DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, THERE HAS STILL BEEN NO MENTION IN LOCAL PRESS OF THIS FACT.

2. NONETHELESS BY LAST WEEKEND INTERNATIONAL PRESS REPORTERS HERE HAD WIND OF PORTUGUESE ANGLE OF STORY AND HAD BEEN JOINED BY FAIRLY LARGE GROUP OF REPS FROM ENGLISH AND AMERICAN PRESS, MAGAZINES AND TV SEEKING DETAILS. INITIALLY THESE REPORTERS WERE FRUSTRATED BECAUSE OF DIFFICULTY TRACING RAY/SNEYD'S ACTIVITIES DURING HIS STAY AND INABILITY TO FIND ANY SOURCES OF HARD INFO. EVENTUALLY REPORTERS DUG OUT NAME OF LOCAL HOTEL WHERE RAY, UNDER NAME OF SNEYD, HAD BEEN STAYING AND INTERVIEWED HOTEL EMPLOYEES, GIRLS IN NEARBY BARS AND OTHER LOW LEVEL SOURCES WHO, WE GATHER, WERE UNABLE TO PROVIDE ANYTHING OTHER THAN LOCAL COLOR.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH 1908 PORTUGAL/US EXTRADITION TREATY WHICH APPEARS TO FORECLOSE EXTRADITION TO US OF PERSON CHARGED WITH CAPITAL CRIME. WE UNDERSTAND REPORTERS MAY BE BUILDING ON THIS LIMITATION A SCENARIO BY WHICH AMERICAN AUTHORITIES, POSSIBLY INCLUDING EMBASSY, WERE AWARE OF RAY/SNEYD'S PRESENCE HERE BUT DID NOTHING ABOUT IT BECAUSE OF EXTRADITION TREATY PROVISIO, INSTEAD WAITING UNTIL HE WAS SOMEPLACE WHERE SUCH RESTRICTION DID NOT EXIST. ALTHOUGH EMBOFFS IN GOOD CONSCIENCE DENIED THEY HAD ANY KNOWLEDGE DURING DATES RAY/SNEYD WAS REPORTEDLY IN PORTUGAL OF HIS PRESENCE IN PORTUGAL, AND MADE NO COMMENT AFTER LEARNING OF FACTS FROM FBI REP, WE ARE NOT SURE THESE DENIALS HAVE BEEN ACCEPTED IN LIGHT OF "ANGLE" REPORTERS HAVE DISCOVERED.

4. OTHER ANGLE WAS THAT RAY/SNEYD CAME HERE TO INVESTIGATE POSSIBILITY OF ENLISTING AS MERCENARY GIVEN ALLEGED REPUTATION OF LISBON AS CENTER FOR MERCENARY RECRUITMENT. WE DO NOT RPT NOT KNOW WHAT RAY/SNEYD MAY HAVE DONE ALONG THESE LINES NOR DO WE KNOW WHAT REPORTERS MAY HAVE FILED IN THIS CONNECTION. FONMINISTRY OFFICIAL TOLD EMBOFF THAT CIRCULATION OF THIS PARTICULAR RUMOR IN INTERNATIONAL PRESS WAS ONE REASON WHY GOP HAD WITHHELD ANY STATEMENT OF FACTS TO PRESS UNTIL JUNE 12. HE ADDED GOP HAD ALSO WISHED TO GIVE APPROPRIATE AGENCIES ADEQUATE TIME TO CHECK AVAILABLE FACTS.

5. FONMINISTRY INFO DIRECTOR CALLED IN LOCAL AND INTERNATIONAL PRESS REPS JUNE 12. REPORTERS WERE GIVEN BRIEF FACTUAL ACCOUNT, INCLUDING DATES WHEN RAY/SNEYD HAD BEEN HERE, ISSUANCE SECOND CANADIAN PASSPORT BY CANADIAN EMBASSY LISBON, THAT PIDE HAD BEEN COOPERATING WITH FBI WHICH HAD SENT REP TO LISBON TO CHECK INTO RAY/SNEYD'S STAY HERE, THAT GOP HAD NO KNOWLEDGE OF HIS STAY HERE AT THAT TIME, AND TH, T THERE WAS NOTHING UNUSUAL ABOUT HIS ACTIVITIES HERE AS FAR AS AUTHORITIES COULD DETERMINE. PORTUGUESE REPORTERS APPARENTLY STILL PREVENTED BY CENSORSHIP FROM PUBLISHING ANY MENTION OF RAY/SNEYD'S PRESENCE IN PORTUGAL. GP-4. WELLMAN

SUBJECT: EXTRADITION JAMES EARL RAY

THE MAGISTRATE OF BOW STREET COURT MR. FRANK MILTON CONVENED COURT TUESDAY JUNE 18 AT 10130 AM. THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC PROSECUTION ADVISED THE COURT AT THE OPENING OF THE HEARING THAT HE HAD COME TO THE CONCLUSION THAT AS EXTRADITION CHARGES AGAINST SNEYD WERE PENDING THEY TOOK PRECEDENCE OVER THE ENGLISH CHARGES AND THEREFORE REQUESTED THAT SNEYD BE REMANDED IN CUSTODY FOR THE MAXIMUM PERIOD UNTIL THE EXTRADITION HEARING WAS CONCLUDED. THE COURT AGREED. THE MAGISTRATE FORMALLY REMANDED SNEYD ALIAS RAY IN CUSTODY FOR THE MAXIMUM PERIOD. THE MAGISTRATE STATED THAT HE WOULD LIKE TO SEE THE EXTRADITION HEARING CONCLUDED AS SOON AS POSSIBLE AND PREFERABLY WITHIN THE PERIOD-THAT RAY IS REMANDED IN CUSTODY ON THE ENGLISH CHARGES. THE MAGISTRATE SUGGESTED THE DATE OF THURSDAY, JUNE 27, FOR THE HEARING. BOTH NIGEL GRAHAM MAW, COUNSEL FOR THE U.S., AND DEFENSE COUNSEL, ROGER FRISBY, AGREED TO THIS DATE AND THE MAGISTRATE SO ORDERED THE HEARING TO BE HELD ON THE 27TH OF JUNE. 44-38861-

SUBJ: PRESENCE OF JAMES EARL RAY IN PORTUGAL

PASS USA

PARIS FOR LEGAL ATTACHE

1. DESPITE EXTENSIVE PUBLICITY IN INTERNATIONAL PRESS OF PRESENCE IN PORTUGAL FOR SOME DAYS IN MAY OF ALLEGED KILLER OF DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, THERE HAS STILL BEEN NO MENTION IN LOCAL PRESS OF THIS FACT.

2. NONETHELESS BY LAST WEEKEND INTERNATIONAL PRESS REPORTERS HERE HAD WIND OF PORTUGUESE ANGLE OF STORY AND HAD BEEN JOINED BY FAIRLY LARGE GROUP OF REPS FROM ENGLISH AND AMERICAN PRESS, MAGAZINES AND TV SEEKING DETAILS. INITIALLY THESE REPORTERS WERE FRUSTRATED BECAUSE OF DIFFICULTY TRACING RAY/SNEYD'S ACTIVITIES DURING HIS STAY AND INABILITY TO FIND ANY SOURCES OF HARD INFO. EVENTUALLY REPORTERS DUG OUT NAME OF LOCAL HOTEL WHERE RAY, UNDER NAME OF SNEYD, HAD BEEN STAYING AND INTERVIEWED HOTEL EMPLOYEES, GIRLS IN NEARBY BARS AND OTHER LOW LEVEL SOURCES WHO, WE GATHER, WERE UNABLE TO PROVIDE ANYTHING OTHER THAN LOCAL COLOR.

3. FOR DEPT'S INFO, WE RELIEVE REPORTERS, ESPECIALLY FROM LIFE, HAVE PURSUED TWO ANGLES HERE WHICH THEY MAY SEEK TO USE. FIRST OF THESE IS EXCHANGE OF

NOTES CONNECTED WITH 1908 PORTUGAL/US EXTRADITION TREATY WHICH APPEARS TO FORECLOSE EXTRADITION TO US OF PERSON CHARGED WITH CAPITAL CRIME. WE UNDERSTAND REPORTERS MAY BE BUILDING ON THIS LIMITATION A SCENARIO BY WHICH AMERICAN AUTHORITIES, POSSIBLY INCLUDING EMBASSY, WERE AWARE OF RAY/SNEYD'S PRESENCE HERE BUT DID NOTHING ABOUT IT BECAUSE OF EXTRADITION TREATY PROVISIO, INSTEAD WAITING UNTIL HE WAS SOMEPLACE WHERE SUCH RESTRICTION DID NOT EXIST. ALTHOUGH EMBOFFS IN GOOD CONSCIENCE DENIED THEY HAD ANY KNOWLEDGE DURING DATES RAY/SNEYD WAS REPORTEDLY IN PORTUGAL OF HIS PRESENCE IN PORTUGAL, AND MADE NO COMMENT AFTER LEARNING OF FACTS FROM FBI REP, WE ARE NOT SURE THESE DENIALS HAVE BEEN ACCEPTED IN LIGHT OF "ANGLE" REPORTERS HAVE DISCOVERED.

4. OTHER ANGLE WAS THAT RAY/SNEYD CAME HERE TO INVESTIGATE POSSIBILITY OF ENLISTING AS MERCENARY GIVEN ALLEGED REPUTATION OF LISBON AS CENTER FOR MERCENARY RECRUITMENT. WE DO NOT RPT NOT KNOW WHAT RAY/SNEYD MAY HAVE DONE ALONG THESE LINES NOR DO WE KNOW WHAT REPORTERS MAY HAVE FILED IN THIS CONNECTION. FONMINISTRY OFFICIAL TOLD EMPOFF THAT CIRCULATION OF THIS PARTICULAR RUMOR IN INTERNATIONAL PRESS WAS ONE REASON WHY GOP HAD WITHHELD ANY STATEMENT OF FACTS TO PRESS UNTIL JUNE 12. HE ADDED GOP HAD ALSO WISHED TO GIVE APPROPRIATE AGENCIES ADEQUATE TIME TO CHECK AVAILABLE FACTS.

5. FONMINISTRY INFO DIRECTOR CALLED IN LOCAL AND INTERNATIONAL PRESS REPS JUNE 12. REPORTERS WERE GIVEN BRIEF FACTUAL ACCOUNT, INCLUDING DATES WHEN RAY/SNEYD HAD BEEN HERE, ISSUANCE SECOND CANADIAN PASSPORT BY CANADIAN EMBASSY LISBON, THAT PIDE HAD BEEN COOPERATING WITH FBI WHICH HAD SENT REP TO LISBON TO CHECK INTO RAY/SNEYD'S STAY HERE, THAT GOP HAD NO KNOWLEDGE OF HIS STAY HERE AT THAT TIME, AND THAT THERE WAS NOTHING UNUSUAL ABOUT HIS ACTIVITIES HERE AS FAR AS AUTHORITIES COULD DETERMINE.

PORTUGUESE REPORTERS APPARENTLY STILL PREVENTED BY CENSORSHIP FROM PUBLISHING ANY MENTION OF RAY/SNEYD'S PRESENCE IN PORTUGAL. GP-4. WELLMAN

1. JUSTICE ADVISES DEFENSE PRESSING ARGUMENT THAT ARMED ROBBERY PER MISSOURI LAW NOT EQUIVALENT TREATY CRIME ROBBERY WITH VIOLENCE. APPARENTLY MAN NOW OF VIEW THAT UNDER BRITISH LAW THREAT WITH PISTOL OR OTHR DEADLY WEAPON DOES NOT CONSTITUTE VIOLENCE. WOULD APPRECIATE DETAILED REPORT DEFENSE ARGUMENT ON THIS POINT AND OUTLINE OF BRITISH JURIDICAL AND DIPLOMATIC PRACTICE WITH US AND THIRD COUNTRIES.

2. WE WILL ASK MISSOURI AUTHORITIES FOR THE AFFIDAVIT REQUESTED BY MAN SETTING FORTH PROVISIONS OF MISSOURI LAW AND FACTS OF ROBBERY IF READILY AVAILABLE AND HELPFUL.

3. WOULD APPRECIATE YOUR JUDGMENT AS TO WHETHER DIPLOMATIC NOTE BY USG ON THIS POINT WOULD BE HELPFUL TO BRITISH COURTS. WOULD WEIGH VIEWS OF FONOFF ON SUCH TREATY QUESTIONS? WOULD FONOFF BE PREPARED TAKE STRONG POSITION ON THIS ISSUE IF NECESSARY. RUSK

Enclosed herein are copies of documents as follows:

(1) Telegram, American Embassy, London to Department of State dated 6/18/68 which elaborates upon subject's hearing on that date.

(2) Copy of the charges against subject as read in court on June 18, together with an extract of a decision handed down by the Queen's Bench Division of the British Court System which pertains to a writ of habeas corpus hearing in an extradition matter.

As is set forth in Document #1, it appears that the defense's only argument in this matter is on the grounds that it is a political extradition. In addition to information set forth in Document #1, NIGEL MAW, the solicitor for the States of Tennessee and Missouri, advised that on the basis of the extract the defense will not have any chance whatsoever if his only argument is that this is a political extradition.

Documents enclosed are for the information of the Bureau.

SUBJECT: EXTRADITION JAMES EARL RAY

The Magistrate of Bow Street Court Mr. Frank Hilton convened Court Tuesday June 18 at 10:30 am. The Director of Public Prosecution advised the Court at the opening of the hearing that he had come to the conclusion that as extradition charges against Sneyd were pending they took precedence over the English charges and therefore requested that Sneyd be remanded in custody for the maximum period until the extradition hearing was concluded. ^{The Court agreed} The Magistrate formally remanded Sneyd alias Ray in custody for the maximum period. The Magistrate stated that he would like to see the extradition case hearing concluded as soon as possible and preferably within the period that Ray is remanded in custody on the English charges. The Magistrate suggested the date of Thursday, June 27, for the hearing. Both Nigel Graham Maw, Counsel for the U.S., and Defense Counsel, Roger Frisby, agreed to this date and the Magistrate so ordered the hearing to be held on the 27th of June. Nigel Graham Maw, Counsel for the U.S., then formally read the charges QUOTE James Earl Ray, hereinafter called the defendant, suspected and accused of the commission of the crime of murder, to wit on 4 April 1968 in Shelby County, State of Tennessee,

Criminal Law—Extradition—Offence of a Political Character—Anarchist Outrages—Evidence of Accomplice—Corroboration—One Committed for the Offence—Extradition Act, 1870 (33 & 34 Vict. c. 52), s. 3, sub-s. 1.

A prisoner committed for extradition, on two charges of committing anarchist outrages in France, by causing explosions at a café and at certain barracks, applied for a writ of habeas corpus. The two charges were included in one committal:—

Held, that if the charges had depended on the uncorroborated evidence of an accomplice (which was not the case), that would not be a ground for discharging the prisoner, for absence of corroboration was not conclusive in favour of a prisoner's right to acquittal, but the magistrate had a discretion as to whether the evidence was sufficient to justify a committal, that separate committals were not necessary, that the outrage at the barracks was not an offence of a political character, within the meaning of s. 3, sub-s. 1, of the Extradition Act, 1870, for to constitute a political offence there must be two or more parties in the State, each seeking to impose the government of their own choice on the other, which was not the case with regard to anarchist crimes, and therefore the prisoner was liable to extradition.

APPLICATION for a writ of habeas corpus to bring up and discharge a prisoner named Meunier, who had been committed by Sir John Bridge, the Chief Magistrate at Bow Street, for surrender to the French Government under the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873 (33 & 34 Vict. c. 52; 36 & 37 Vict. c. 50).

The prisoner was charged with wilfully causing two explosions in France, one at the Café Véry in Paris, which caused the death of two persons, and the other at certain barracks. It was proved by the witnesses whose depositions were taken in France, as well as by a statement voluntarily made by the prisoner himself to the inspector of police who arrested him in London, that the prisoner was an anarchist.

The application was made in vacation (1) by summons at chambers, which Kennedy, J., referred to the Court.

The grounds of the application were four: (1) that there was no evidence that the prisoner Meunier, who was brought up and committed at Bow Street, was the same person as Maunier, who was charged with the offences committed in France, and was referred to in the depositions taken in France; (2.) that the evidence relied on to connect the prisoner with the offences charged was the evidence of an accomplice, and was not corroborated; (3.) that two separate and distinct offences were included in one committal; (4.) that the explosion at the barracks was an offence of a political character, within the meaning of the Extradition Act, 1870 (33 & 34 Vict. c. 52), s. 8, sub-s. 1 (1), and therefore the prisoner was not liable to be surrendered in respect of that offence.

Burnie, for the prisoner, moved for an order for a habeas corpus, on the four grounds already stated.

The Solicitor General (R. T. Reid, Q.C.), (The Attorney General (Sir John Rigby, Q.C.), and H. Sutton, with him), for the Crown. As to identity, there are numerous points in which the facts stated, and the description of the accused given, in the depositions taken in France, coincide exactly with the facts appearing on the hearing at Bow Street, and all these coincidences taken together amount to ample evidence of identity.

As to corroboration, it is not a rule of law that an accomplice must be corroborated, but the question is one of practice, and the absence of corroboration would not be sufficient to invalidate a committal, where the magistrate, in the exercise of his discretion, was of opinion that a prima facie case had been made out. In the present case, however, there is, in the French depositions, sufficient evidence of corroboration, if it were necessary.

As to the committal, the statute does not require separate committals.

As to the question of an offence of a political character, the evidence against the prisoner is such as to support charges of murder, attempt to murder, and wilful damage to buildings, which are in no sense political offences.

Burnie, for the prisoner. The evidence of identity is insufficient.

As to corroboration, it is a universal rule that no person ought to be convicted on the uncorroborated evidence of an accomplice, and there is no corroboration here. The Court has power to review the decision of the magistrate on this point: In re Castioni (1), per Denman, J., at p. 157, per Hawkins, J., at p. 161; In re Guerin. (2)

(1) 33 & 34 Vict. c. 52, s. 8: "The following restrictions shall be observed with respect to the surrender of fugitive criminals: (1.) A fugitive criminal shall not be rendered if the offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded is one of a political character."

IN RE
MEUNIER.

The committal is bad, as it includes two separate and distinct charges.

As to the question of a political offence, it cannot be contended that the explosion at the Café Vóry was a political offence; but, as to the explosion at the barracks, the case is different, for the evidence shows an attempt to destroy Government property, the quarters occupied by the soldiers of the French Government. The decision in In re Castioni (1) is in the prisoner's favour on this question.

CAVE, J. I am of opinion that this application for a writ of habeas corpus must be refused.

The principal ground relied on by Mr. Burnie on behalf of the prisoner is, that there was no evidence of the identity of the prisoner Meunier, who was brought up and committed at Bow Street, with the accused man Mounier, who is referred to in the depositions taken in France, to warrant the committal of the prisoner for the purpose of extradition. That is the point to which he attaches the most importance.

The second point is, that the evidence against the accused was the evidence of an accomplice, and there is no sufficient corroboration to warrant his committal.

The third point is, that there are two charges, and only one committal, and that there should be two committals.

The fourth point is, that, so far as relates to the outrage at the barracks, the offence charged is one of a political character, and therefore the accused is not liable to be surrendered under the Extradition Acts.

I will take the second point first. The question is whether the witness, on whose evidence the charges against the accused mainly depend, is corroborated by the other witnesses, whose evidence appears on the depositions taken in France.

IN RE
 MEUNIER.
 Cave. J.

[The learned judge here dealt with the various statements of fact relied upon by the prosecution as corroboration, and continued as follows:—]

It is impossible to deal with the point by taking separately each single fact stated, and saying it is a small matter, and does not amount to corroboration; that may be so, but the whole of the facts taken together form a strong body of circumstantial evidence in corroboration. In my judgment the fact that there is not corroborative evidence is not conclusive in favour of the accused; but the magistrate must exercise his discretion in each case in arriving at a conclusion as to whether there ought to be a committal or not. It is not the law that a prisoner must necessarily be acquitted in the absence of corroborative evidence; for the evidence must be laid before the jury in each case. No doubt, it is the practice to warn the jury that they ought not to convict unless they think that the evidence of the accomplice is corroborated; but I know of no power to withdraw the case from the jury for want of corroborative evidence, and I know of no power to set aside a verdict of guilty on that ground. (1) The magistrate has a discretion in each case, as to whether the evidence is or is not sufficient to justify a committal; and in the present case, in my opinion, the magistrate has exercised that discretion rightly.

The next point which I will deal with is as to the evidence of identity. It is true that no one was called to identify the man Meunier, who was brought up at Bow Street, with the Meunier referred to in the depositions taken in France. But there were many circumstances tending to shew the identity, and the prisoner was before Sir John Bridge, who had the opportunity of comparing him with the description given by the French witnesses.

[The learned judge here dealt with the evidence as to identity, and continued as follows:—]

In the face of these facts the slight discrepancy between the christian name given by the French witnesses and that in the committal order (Théodule and Théodore) sinks into nothing, and in my opinion that point also fails.

(1) See Reg. v. Stubble, Dearaley & Pearce's O. C. 555; Reg. v. Doyce, 1 B. & S. 311.

The next point is a technical one, namely, that there are two offences charged, and only one committal; but I find nothing in the statutes requiring separate committals.

Cass. J.

The last point taken is, that, so far as regards the outrage at the barracks, the offence charged is one of a political character, and therefore the accused is not liable to be surrendered under the Extradition Acts; for it is said that the outrage was an attack on Government property, and was an attempt to destroy the quarters occupied by the troops of the French Government. It appears to me that, in order to constitute an offence of a political character, there must be two or more parties in the State, each seeking to impose the Government of their own choice on the other, and that, if the offence is committed by one side or the other in pursuance of that object, it is a political offence, otherwise not. In the present case there are not two parties in the State, each seeking to impose the Government of their own choice on the other; for the party with whom the accused is identified by the evidence, and by his own voluntary statement, namely, the party of anarchy, is the enemy of all Governments. Their efforts are directed primarily against the general body of citizens. They may, secondarily and incidentally, commit offences against some particular Government; but anarchist offences are mainly directed against private citizens. I agree, as to this question also, with the view taken by Sir John Bridge; and I am of opinion that the crime charged was not a political offence within the meaning of the Extradition Act.

For these reasons I am of opinion that the contention on behalf of the prisoner fails on all grounds, and that the application for a writ of habeas corpus must be refused.

COLLINS, J. I am of the same opinion, and on the same grounds.

Application refused.
