Re: Harold Weisberg v. General Services
Administration (C.A.D.C. No. 77-1831)

Dear Mr. Fisher:

Enclosed are the required number of copies of the Brief for the Defendant-Appellee in the above matter.

This brief was due for filing on February 2, 1978. On that date, we filed copies of the brief by placing them in the mail, and serving them upon appellant's counsel, together with a motion for leave to file the brief, temporarily, without index. Our motion explained that the preparation of the index had been delayed for one day. We have now completed the index, integrated it into the appellee's brief, and are accordingly filing the enclosed (and completed) copies of the Brief for the Defendant-Appellee. The enclosed brief also makes several typographical and other minor corrections.

If it is agreeable to the Court, I suggest that the enclosed copies be filed as the Brief for the Defendant-Appellee, and that the prior copies which lacked the index be disregarded. I am of course serving a copy of the enclosed brief upon appellant's counsel.

Yours very truly,

LEONARD SCHAITMAN
Assistant Chief, Appellate Section
Civil Division
