

JL

Rt. 12, Frederick, Md. 21701
8/4/78

Mr. Charles E. Savige, Deputy
FOIA/EA Coordinator
CIA
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Savige,                      Re: C.I.A. 77-1997

Your affidavit that is attached to the CIA's Reply Memorandum is dated the day of its service, July 19. These papers were delayed in reaching my counsel. They were further delayed in reaching me.

I have now read your affidavit.

Because my lawyer is ill I write you about it directly, not knowing what the time factors are in such matters.

I believe that your affidavit is falsely sworn. I do not assume that you swore falsely deliberately, although official false swearing is common enough within my experience for me to recognize that deliberateness is not impossible.

I therefore ask that you reread this affidavit and if you agree with me correct or withdraw it for correction.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

11

Rt. 12, Frederick, Md. 21701
8/4/78

Mr. Charles E. Savage, Deputy
FOIA/PA Coordinator
CIA
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Savage,                    Re: C.A. 77-1997

Your affidavit that is attached to the CIA's Reply Memorandum is dated the day of its service, July 19. These papers were delayed in reaching my counsel. They were further delayed in reaching me.

I have now read your affidavit.

Because my lawyer is ill I write you about it directly, not knowing what the time factors are in such matters.

I believe that your affidavit is falsely sworn. I do not assume that you swore falsely deliberately, although official false swearing is common enough within my experience for me to recognize that deliberateness is not impossible.

I therefore ask that you reread this affidavit and if you agree with me correct or withdraw it for correction.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

1997

Rt. 12, Frederick, Md. 21701
8/4/78

Mr. Charles E. Savige, Deputy
FOIA/PA Coordinator
CIA
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Savige,                      Re: C.A. 77-1997

Your affidavit that is attached to the CIA's Reply Memorandum is dated the day of its service, July 19. These papers were delayed in reaching my counsel. They were further delayed in reaching me.

I have now read your affidavit.

Because my lawyer is ill I write you about it directly, not knowing what the time factors are in such matters.

I believe that your affidavit is falsely sworn. I do not assume that you swore falsely deliberately, although official false swearing is common enough within my experience for me to recognize that deliberateness is not impossible.

I therefore ask that you reread this affidavit and if you agree with me correct or withdraw it for correction.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg