Dear Mr. Weisberg:

This is in reference to our letter of 20 March 1978 wherein we advised you that search fees were being waived in connection with the processing of your request concerning the Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr., and James Earl Ray. We have reviewed the matter further and are able to provide you with the following details which may be of help to you.

Our records indicate that we have already released 488 pages of material in response to that request. The cost of providing you retention copies at 10¢ per page amounted to $48.80. You may, therefore, choose to apply your $500 deposit against that amount, and the cost of future releases on this subject. On the other hand, you may also choose to apply the balance against the cost, $1,435.70, of providing you copies of 14,357 pages of released materials in response to your request concerning this Agency's involvement in drug and behavioral research. You may, of course, also choose to pay separately, and in that case we will be prepared to refund the $500 deposit to you.

Sincerely,

Charles E. Savage
