Dr. Johnson Missing For One Week

City police are searching for 46-year-old Tucson physician who has been missing for one week after failing to keep an appointment at St. Joseph's hospital.

Dr. Robert E. Johnson, of 100 N. Encanto, was last seen March 29 when he left his office at 1311 N. Country Club Rd. He said his nurse would return in 10 hours later.

Officials at St. Joseph's said Johnson apparently never made it to the hospital.

The doctor is described as 5-foot-10, weighs about 175 pounds, and has a small scar on his forehead. He has brown eyes, graying hair worn in a crew cut and medium complexion. Police said he was driving a 1957 white sports car when he disappeared.

King's Killer?

Mrs. Brewer said the man was as tall as her husband—about six feet.

B. L. Reeves, a 74-year-old retired hotel clerk, watched the man as he talked to Mrs. Brewer.

"I seen him when she check him in. He had his back to me, but I judge he was about 5-foot-11. He had dark hair and a pretty neat hair cut."

Charlie Q. Stephens, in room 6—between the room taken by Willard, and the bathroom—got a better look.

He saw the man when Mrs. Brewer was showing him room 5.

"He was clear shaven and had a long, sharp nose. He had normal eyes and a square chin. Thick hair at the front and receded on each side.
