Dear Mr. Lesar:

Reference is made to your letter dated February 16, 1978, requesting information pertaining to microfilming of the 98,755 pages of records pertaining to the Assassination of President John F. Kennedy by the Microfilming Corporation of America and the New York Times.

Please be advised that the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) has not received a request from either Microfilming Corporation of America or the New York Times for access to the FBI records concerning the Assassination of President Kennedy, therefore, the FBI has no documents which can be processed for release under the Freedom of Information Act pursuant to your request.

Sincerely yours,

Allen H. McCreight/mml
