SAMMY CALVARESI, 380 Allison Circle, Wheat Ridge, Colorado, advised JACK RUBY was unknown to him. He advised JOHNNIE DE ANDREA and he, CALVARESI, were partners for years in the old Belmont and he never heard JOHNNIE speak of knowing RUBY and is sure RUBY never visited the club. He advised he felt if DE ANDREA had known RUBY that he, SAMMY CALVARESI, would have known of it or met RUBY, as during the years they were partners, they were also socially close.

THORWALD WALTER SANDVE, 1755 California Street, Denver, Colorado, and Manager of the Sears Hotel at the aforementioned address, advised as follows:

After viewing JACK RUBY's picture on television yesterday, November 24, 1963, he made general comments to several persons in the Sears Hotel to the effect that he had known RUBY. Upon interview, SANDVE stated, however, that when he was working for a leather company in Dallas two or three years ago, he had frequented the Carousel Club on Commerce Street in Dallas. He advised that he had been in the club on about fifteen or twenty occasions. He also knew that RUBY was the owner of the Carousel, but was acquainted with RUBY only on a casual basis. He explained his relationship with RUBY by stating that he knew him only well enough to say, "hi Jack," when he saw RUBY.

SANDVE further stated that RUBY was well liked by the people who knew him, although he had heard that RUBY was known at that time to be high tempered and a "tough guy." He advised that RUBY was known to have dated "strippers" at the Carousel.

SANDVE stated that he has not seen nor heard from RUBY since he, SANDVE, had been in Dallas, two or three years ago. He denied knowing anything specific about RUBY's background or associates other than as stated herein.
