ground is when I realized there was serious trouble, and I believe that was after the third shot was fired.

MR. LIEBELER: Your impression of where the shots came from was much the result of the activity near number seven?

MR. TÉAGUE: Not when I heard the shots.

MR. LIEBELER: You thought they had come from the area between number seven and five?

MR. TEAGUE: I believe they came from up in here.

MR. LIEBELER: Back in the area C?

MR. TEAGUE: Right.

MR. LIEBELER: Behind the concrete monument here between five and seven, toward the general area of C?

MR. TEAGUE: Yes.

MR. LIEBELER: Did you look up near the rail oad tracks in that area after you heard the shots?

MR. TEAGUE: I looked all around. I looked at the complete area to try to find out where the disturbance was. And for some reason, after the third shot, I believe I ducked down back in here.

MR. LIEBELER: Under the railroad tracks?

MR. TEAGUE: Right. Behind an abutment. And when I stuck my head outside, the Secret Service car was just starting to passunder the underpass.

MR. LIEBELER: The car immediately behind the President.

L-don't think I have any additional questions. Let me ask

MR, TEAGUE: I can't recall any echo, not at all.

you, did you see any evidence of anybody having fired from the area on the railroad tracks above the Triple Underpass? MR. TEAGUE: None.

MR. LIEBELER: Do you that it is consistent with what you heard and saw that day, that the shots could have come from the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository? MR. TEAGUE: Yes.

MR. LIEBELER: There was in fact a considerable echo in that area?

MR. TEAGUE: There was no echo from where I stood. was asked this question before, and there was no echo.

It was just a loud, oh, not a cannon, but definitely louder and more solid than a rifle shot.

MR. LIEBELER: So you, being in a place where there was no echo, you were able to recognize how many shots there were quite clearly?

MR. TEAGUE: I believe so.

MR. LIEBELER: And you say you heard three shots?

MR. TEAGUE: That is right.

MR. LIEBELER: There has been considerable testimony from people who were standing up near the corner of Elm Street and Houston that it was hard to tell, but of course, you were standing completely across the plaza?

MR. LIEBELER: Do you remember seeing anything else or observing anything else that day that you think would be helpful to the Commission, that I haven't asked you about?

MR. TEAGUE: Not that I can think of. There is lots of things that you recall about something like that, that you don't recall for certain. What struck me the most was that everybody said all three shots were accounted for. I felt very strongly that the third shot hit down there, and there was the deputy sheriff and the patrolman down under the bridge right there with me.

MR. LIEBELER: Now you say you thought it was the third shot that hit down there?

MR. TÉAGUE: No. I said I thought that all three All the newspaper accounts for months said all the shots were accounted for.

MR. LIEBELER: In terms of hitting in the car?

MR. TEAGUE: Hitting into the car, yes.

MR. LIEBELER: Well, there was a story in the paper more recently that indicated that one of them might have missed.

MR. TEAGUE: That's right.

MR. LIEBELER: Did you see that?

MR. TEAGUE: That's right, yes.

MR. LIEBELER: Other than that, is there anything that you can think of that you think the Commission should know about of what you heard and saw that day?

MR. TEAGUE: No, I don't know a thing. The only thing that I saw that I thought was wrong was that there was about
