

The Memorandum states (page 10)

The district court states (page 10) with regard to Weisberg's Rule 59 Motion that it does not have authority to consider that motion because the 10-day time period had expired. Weisberg did file his motion within 10 days of the filing of the amended judgement.