On November 8, 1966 the FBI summarized a gross fabrication in its files (62-109060-4250) for the White House: "Weisberg held an annual celebration of the Russian Revolution . . . attended by 25 to 30 unknown ~~persons~~ people . . . held on the day when the communists celebrate all over the world." ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ There is not a word of truth in this. The only time that number of <sup>people</sup> persons or any number of <sup>"unknown people"</sup> strangers were ever at the ~~farm~~ <sup>farm</sup> Weisberg owned and operated at the period referred to was an annual religious gathering after the Jewish high holidays which, even the FBI should have known, is never ~~on~~ "on the day when the communist celebrate." <sup>or even close to it.</sup>

Pleased with this ~~defamation and~~ completely fabricated defamation and others like it the FBI gave it wide distribution, to attorneys general, their closer <sup>associates</sup> ~~assistants~~, to those defending Weisberg's FOIA litigation and even to the Congress which, unlike the FBI, has corrected its records. Disclosed FBI records indicate the probability that ~~this~~ this police-statism was leaked and flashed in other ways.
