DEFENDANT'S MOTION AND MEMORANDUM
OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN
SUPPORT OF AN EXTENSION OF TIME

On April 13, 1983, the Court directed the defendant within 30 days to "serve upon plaintiff and file with the Court answers to interrogatories 12(a), 32 and 33" of plaintiff's First Set of Interrogatories. Those answers are thus due on or before May 13, 1983.

Because of the extra time entailed in mailing the proposed answers from Washington to New Orleans, then to Dallas, and then back again to Washington for filing, it was decided to submit separate sets of answers for the Dallas and New Orleans Field Offices. The Dallas answers were filed this date. The New Orleans answers, however, are awaiting signature by Special Agent Clifford H. Anderson who has been out of his office for the past week. Accordingly, the defendant requests an additional 5 days -- that is, until Wednesday, May 18, 1983 -- to file its answers from the New Orleans Field Office.

Respectfully submitted,
