

Mr. Steve Bell
ABC News
1717 DeSales St., NW
Washington, D. C. 20036

12/4/85

Dear Steve,

With fewer teeth, figuratively and literally, this old man will try to bite the official dog this coming Tuesday, 12/10, at 10:30 a.m., in Judge J.L. Smith's Courtroom 15. He has just scheduled a hearing on my motion to reconsider his refusal to vacate the judgement against me that, without denial by the DJ or FBI, I've alleged was procured by fraud, misrepresentation and perjury.

For your man who watches restraints on information I enclose mu last filing, the one on which the judge acted.

The underlying issues are quite important to restraints on information, as I think what I sent earlier makes pretty clear. Evil, repressive precedent I feel I must overturn for others.

I'm not able to drive that far and haven't for years. I used to drop in on you when I used the bus, but I can't do that now. A friend will drive me, I'll have to use a wheelchair because I can't stand and can walk only about a city block, but I'll be there!

Hope you have a good holiday,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to be 'Hed'.