

Dear Les,

12/4/85

Your postcard of 9/30 is still on my desk, along with any awful clutter, and I've been intending to write you but I've been a bit less able and a lot more lazy and self-indulgent so I didn't get around to it.

However, today I was informed that this man may have a shot at biting the official dog this coming Tuesday, 12/10, at 10:30 a.m., with the not inconsiderable barrier of Judge John Lewis Smith between the teeth and the ass. Courtroom 15. I know you are too busy but if you aren't I'd like to see you again and I also believe that a little audience, which is never present at any FOIA hearing I've had, might be a slight deterrent.

Maybe they have a boobytrap, maybe they are just trying to cover themselves or both. But as a nonlawyer I think I've done what the timid lawyers didn't try. I've limited the issues to undenied allegations of official criminal misconduct - fraud, perjury and misrepresentation - and irremedial error by the fink Smith.

If you know any reporters who might get there, I'm sure it would help FOIA because of the underlying issues and I think it might help me.

Sorry I didn't send the motion for the completeness of your/Jack's file.

Best wishes,
