

Mr. Lyle Denniston
Baltimore Sun
1627 K St., NW
Washington, D.C. 20006

12/10/85

Dear Mr. Denniston,

This old man, with fewer teeth, figuratively and actually, may get a chance to bite the official dog this coming Tuesday, 12/10, at 10:30 a.m., because Judge J.L. Smith has scheduled a hearing on my motion for reconsideration.

For the completeness of your file, if you've kept one, I enclose my response to the DJ/FBI Opposition.

While the underlying issues are, I think, significant for requesters of information and their counsel, I think that I've narrowed the issues, in seeking to have the judgement against me vacated, to undenied official fraud, perjury and misrepresentation and to Smith's error in issuing an Order without making a finding of fact, as required by the Rules.

Smith's is courtroom 15.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg