Dear Mr. Lesar:

Reference is made to the requests of your client, Mark Allen, for information relating to the investigation of the House Select Committee on Assassinations, reference number 211,326.

You were previously advised that material was being withheld pending review by other government agencies. A portion of these documents have been returned to the FBI and are enclosed herewith.

Of the 113 pages enclosed, 33 pages have not been previously released, 42 pages were released with only FBI information, and the remainder are either cover pages for your information or pages indicating a change of exemption with no additional information released.

You may submit an appeal from any denial contained herein by writing to the Assistant Attorney General, Office of Legal Policy (Attention: Office of Information and Privacy), United States Department of Justice, Washington, D. C. 20530, within thirty days from receipt of this letter. The envelope and the letter should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Appeal" or "Information Appeal." Please cite the Freedom of Information-Privacy Acts (FOIPA) number assigned to your request so that it may be easily identified.

Sincerely yours,

James K. Hall
