Inquiry was conducted to determine the identity of M. C. Oswald, 4029 Byers, Fort Worth, Texas. (X)(U)

According to information appearing in an article in the "Fort Worth Star Telegram", a daily newspaper at Fort Worth, Texas, issue of November 17, 1967, Marguerite Claverie Oswald, mother of Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of former President John F. Kennedy, resided at 4029 Byers Street, Fort Worth, Texas, on that date. (X)(U)

The June, 1968, Fort Worth, Texas telephone directory lists M. C. Oswald residing at 4029 Byers, telephone PE 2-6839. (X)(U)

The files of the FBI reflect that since the assassination of President Kennedy in 1963, and the subsequent arrest of Oswald for that crime, Mrs. Marguerite Claverie Oswald has made a number of public appearances in connection with ensuing investigation of Lee Harvey Oswald and has been frequently mentioned in the news media as criticizing the Warren Commission, which investigated the assassination, and has directed many communications to public officials, which have been critical of that investigation.
