On April 18, 1961, Robert Maheu, Maheu and King Associates, Incorporated, 1125 19th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.; advised a Special Agent of the FBI that with the recent invasion of Cuba by anti-Castro forces, he is now in a position to furnish further information regarding the situation involving the subjects at Las Vegas, Nevada.

Mr. Maheu insinuated that for a considerable period of time he has been working with the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). In connection with this work, he has spent considerable time in Miami, Florida, area and has traveled extensively throughout the United States. He stated that this work could be verified by [redacted] CIA).

Maheu stated that in connection with instant investigation, information was received that there was a possible leak of information on the part of an individual in the Chicago area. Mr. Maheu advised that he did not know the full name of this person and when asked if it were Samuel N. Giancana, he stated that he did not know the last name of the individual but described him as being a person who is very much in love with Phyllis McGuire of the McGuire Sisters Trio. He stated that since it was not possible to make direct contact with this individual, it was ascertained that Phyllis McGuire was very close to him and that she was one of the few people in whom he would confide. It was also determined that Miss McGuire was a close personal friend of Dan Rowan, who, during October, 1960, was working in Las Vegas, Nevada. Mr. Maheu stated that when it was ascertained that Phyllis McGuire was going to visit with
