Information and Privacy Coordinator
Central Intelligence Agency

Dear Mr. Wilson:

Thank you for your letter of April 13, concerning material recently released by the CIA relating to the Kennedy assassination.

I would like to remind you of my request of March 17 for the CIA's response to my memo on the CIA and the Warren Commission. In view of recent developments, I would appreciate a prompt response.

Some of the requested documents may be included in the list of withheld items which you sent to Mr. Bernard Fensterwald. Specifically, item 1088 (a letter of April 29, 1975 to the Rockefeller Commission) might be a study of the points raised in my memo; other items from 1083 to 1092 might also be covered by my request.

Sincerely yours,

Paul L. Hoch
