MOTION FOR LEAVE TO CORRECT TWO ERRORS IN REPLY BRIEF AND CROSS-APPELLEE'S BRIEF WHEN BRIEF IS FILED IN FINAL FORM

Appellant/Cross-Appellee Harold Weisberg moves the Court for leave to correct two factual errors which appear in his reply brief and cross-appellee's brief which has been filed in preliminary form. The two errors are:

1. At page two of the brief it is asserted that Weisberg investigated labor violence in Harlan County and Laurel County, Kentucky. This is incorrect in that Weisberg investigated labor violence only in Harlan County, Kentucky. Weisberg wishes to delete the words "and Laurel County" from his brief in final form so as to make it factually accurate.

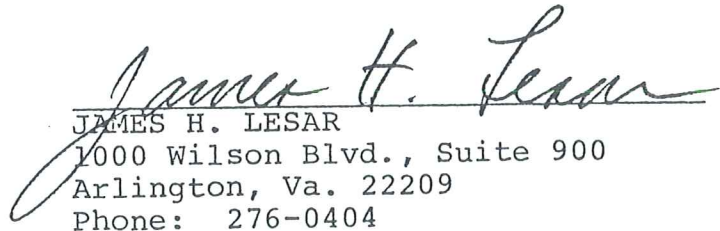

2. At the bottom of page 34 and the top of page 35 the brief refers to "107 photographs taken by a man travelling with Dr. King's party as a representative of the Justice Department's Community Relations Service...." In writing this, Weisberg's counsel confused James H. Laue, who travelled with Dr. King's party as a representative of the Justice Department's Community Relations Service, with Joseph Louw, who travelled with the King party as a representative of public television. It was Louw, not Laue, who took the crime scene photographs referred to. Weisberg wishes to correct this error in the final form of his brief by substituting "as a representative of public television" for "as a representative of the Justice Department's Community Relations Service."

Weisberg called these errors to the attention of his counsel as soon as he read the brief, and Weisberg's counsel has notified Government counsel of them by phone.

Accordingly, Weisberg asks leave to correct his brief in final form as set forth above.

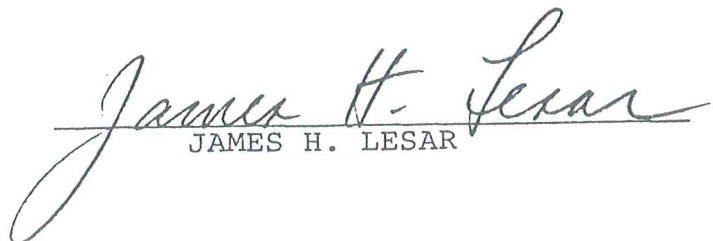

Respectfully submitted,
