FBI REC'D - CIV RIGHTS

NOTE:

Department in a memorandum dated 2/1/71, requested that we conduct considerable and extensive investigation concerning aspects of a possible conspiracy existing in the King assassination. The request was discussed with Mr. James Turner of the Department on 2/5/71, and as a result thereof, the Departmental request was considerably limited. The results of investigation were transmitted to the Department and the Department in their current memorandum is requesting that we interview an individual concerning the conversation which he overheard regarding the King assassination. Atlanta being instructed to conduct the requested investigation.
