During the appearance of Deputy Associate Director James B.
Adams before the House Subcommittee on Civil and Constitutional Rights on 10/21/75, one of the Subcommittee members asked why information from Lee Harvey Oswald's ~~reporting~~ Notebook regarding Special Agent James P. ^{HOSTY} Hosty was not initially furnished to the Warren Commission. A question was asked as to what would motivate an agent to tear out or delete the information. The subcommittee member stated it would indicate that the decision was made by higher ups and not by Hosty himself. Mr. Adams answered that he believed the initial reports were ~~summary~~ ~~summary~~ summary in nature and the information was furnished in a subsequent report. He said he would find out the full reason and inform the Subcommittee if they so ~~soon~~ desired. Thus far, no official request has been received from the Subcommittee, but the following information has been retrieved from Bureau files in anticipation of such a request:

① Letter from Director, FBI to J. Lee Rankin, General Counsel, The President's Commission, ~~dated~~ dated 1/27/64. ~~January 27, 1964~~, (attached), wherein on pages 2 and 3, information regarding Hosty ~~and a Duffie~~ being mentioned in Dowald's Notebook was furnished to the Commission

2) Letter from Rankin to Director, FBI, dated 2/20/64 (ATTACHED), wherein the Commission requests the circumstances regarding the omission of the ~~the following~~ notations regarding Hosty from Dallas report of Special Agent Robert P. Gemberling dated 12/23/63.
