Re: REPORT FIRST FURNISHED TO WARREN COMMISSION WHICH DID NOT REFER TO
SPECIAL AGENT JAMES P. HOSTY, JR.
AND LATER REPORT FURNISHED TO
WARREN COMMISSION WHICH INCLUDED
THE INFORMATION RELATING TO SPECIAL AGENT HOSTY

By letter of October 20, 1975, the Honorable Don Edwards, Chairman of the above-captioned Subcommittee, requested to be furnished certain information to augment the record regarding the testimony of FBI Deputy Associate Director James B. Adams on October 21, 1975.

Mr. Edwards asked that readily available information be furnished to the Subcommittee without waiting for a compilation of a response to each question.

Item Number One of Mr. Edwards' letter requested "Copy of Report (Summary) first furnished to the Warren Commission which did not refer to Agent Hosty, along with the report later furnished to the Commission which included the reference data on Agent Hosty."

The first report apparently referred to in this request is one dated December 23, 1963, which was submitted by Special Agent Robert P. Gemberling of the Dallas FBI Office. This report was furnished to the Warren Commission. The information pertaining to Lee Harvey Oswald's address book, which is apparently the subject matter of this request, is contained on pages 671 - 701 of that report. In the interest of economy, since that report is 818 pages long, only the pertinent pages, 671 - 701, are being furnished in this response. These pertinent pages follow:
