This information was also set out in a report prepared by Special Agent Gemberling, dated February 11, 1964, which was also sent to the Warren Commission. The portion of that report pertaining to Oswald's address book is contained on pages 278 - 283. Since this report is 343 pages long, in the interest of economy, only the pertinent pages, 278 - 283, are being furnished. They follow:

By letter of February 27, 1964, to J. Lee Rankin, the FBI advised the Warren Commission of the circumstances of the omission of the information relating to Special Agent Hosty from the December 23, 1963 report. That letter explained that entries in the address book which required investigative attention were included in the December 23, 1963 report. The entry regarding Special Agent Hosty did not require investigation, since the FBI quite obviously knew the identity of Special Agent Hosty, knew he had been investigating Oswald, and knew he had given his name, office address, and office telephone number to an acquaintance of Oswald, Mrs. Ruth Paine.

The February 27, 1964 letter to J. Lee Rankin and its attachments, the affidavits of Special Agents Robert P. Gemberling and John T. Kesler, follow:
