VICTIM (DECEASED)

Re Dallas tel to New Orleans, 12/9/63, 3:17 PM, CST.

DAVID W. FERRIE, Investigator for G. WRAY GILL, Attorney, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised that JACK S. MARTIN, SR., 1311 N. Prier Street, New Orleans, had acquired innumerable degrees and phony honors and religious commissions over the years. JACK S. MARTIN, SR., according to FERRIE, operated a degree mill of some kind a number of years ago in the State of Texas.

FERRIE advised that other sources for "phony" degrees are: CARL J. STANLEY of Louisville, Kentucky, who calls himself a Bishop of the Old Catholic Church and a second individual named EARL ANGLIN JAMES of Toronto, Canada. FERRIE advised that MARTIN has furnished voluminous information to a person named THERESA WILKINSON of the Health, Education, and Welfare Department of the U. S. Government about the phony degrees.

FERRIE advised that the foremost authority on hypnotism and its effects is Dr. HAROLD ROSEN, Department of Neuro-Psychiatry, John Hopkins University, Baltimore, Maryland, who, if provided with sufficient background information would probably render an expert opinion as to the effects and after effects of hypnotish on a person such as OSWALD.
