CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20505

24 AUG 1981

Harold Weisberg
Route 12
Frederick, MD 21701

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

The Department of Justice in responding to your Freedom of Information request regarding John F. Kennedy has recovered one document which originated with this Agency.

We have reviewed the document, a Memorandum for the Record dated 14 May 1962, with a 15 May 1962 transmittal note from Lawrence R. Houston to Robert Kennedy and have determined that it is releasable in part under FOIA exemption (b)(3). The only deletions are a control number and obsolete classification markings. The releasable document and an explanation of the FOIA exemption cited above is enclosed at Tab A.

The denying official is Mr. Warren Priestly, Chief, Information Review Group, Office of Security.

I am advising you of your right to appeal this decision by addressing your appeal to the CIA Information Review Committee, in my care. Should you choose to do so, please set forth the basis of your appeal.

Sincerely,

John E. Bacon
Information and Privacy Coordinator

EXPLANATION OF EXEMPTIONS

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT:

- (b) (1) applies to material which is properly classified pursuant to an Executive order in the interest of national defense or foreign policy;
- (b) (2) applies to information which pertains solely to the internal rules and practices of the Agency;
- (b) (3) applies to the Director's statutory obligations to protect from disclosure intelligence sources and methods, as well as the organization, functions, names, official titles, salaries or numbers of personnel employed by the Agency, in accord with the National Security Act of 1947 and the CIA Act of 1949, respectively;
- (b) (4) applies to information such as trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person on a privileged or confidential basis;
- (b) (5) applies to inter- and intra-agency memoranda which are advisory in nature;
- (b) (6) applies to information release of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of other individuals; and
- (b) (7) applies to investigatory records, release of which could (C) constitute an unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of others, (D) disclose the identity of a confidential source, (E) disclose investigative techniques and procedures, or (F) endanger the life or physical safety of law enforcement personnel.

PRIVACY ACT:

- (b) applies to information concerning other individuals which may not be released without their written consent;
- (j) (1) applies to polygraph records; documents or segregable portions of documents, release of which would disclose intelligence sources and methods, including names of certain Agency employees and organizational components; and, documents or information provided by foreign governments;
- (k) (1) applies to information and material properly classified pursuant an Executive order in the interest of national defense or foreign policy; and
- (k) (5) applies to investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment, or access to classified information, release of which would disclose a confidential source.
