Pursuant to your request, 148 page(s) were reviewed and 113 page(s) are being released.

During the review of material pertinent to the subject of your request, documents were located which originated with another Government agency(ies).

These documents were referred to that agency(ies) for review and direct response to you.

contain information furnished by another Government agency(ies). You will be advised by the FBI as to the releasability of this information following our consultation with the other agency(ies).

In certain instances, information collected in our field office files is not forwarded to FBI Headquarters. These instances include cases in which the perpetrators of the violations were not identified; cases in which the United States Attorney declined prosecution; and cases in which the allegations were unsubstantiated or not within the jurisdiction of the FBI. If you believe records of interest to you are located in the files of an FBI field office and were not reported to Headquarters, you may write directly to that field office for those materials.

If you know of any other matter in which information concerning you or the subject of your request may have been recorded by the FBI, and can identify the matter in sufficient detail, including the approximate time frame and location, a further search will be made.

If you desire, you may appeal any denials contained herein. Appeals should be directed in writing to the Assistant Attorney General, Office of Legal Policy (Attention: Office of Information and Privacy), United States Department of Justice, Washington, D. C. 20530, within thirty days from receipt of this letter. The envelope and the letter should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Appeal" or "Information Appeal." Please cite the FOIPA number assigned to your request so that it may be easily identified.

See additional information which follows.

Sincerely yours,

Chief
Freedom of Information-
Privacy Acts Section
Records Management Division

Enclosures (2)

CLICK Magazine is the subject of one small main file which was processed for release to you by letters dated January 16, 1987 and April 14, 1987. In addition, CLICK Magazine is indexed in several cross-references. A cross-reference is a document in a file on another individual, organization, event, activity, or the like in which the subject of your request is mentioned. In processing the cross-references, the pages considered for possible release included only those pages which mention the subject of your request and any additional pages showing the context in which the subject of your request was mentioned.

Two cross-references which mention CLICK Magazine cannot be located and are unavailable for processing at this time. If and when the files which contain these documents are located, you will be notified.

Your patience is appreciated.
