Dear Mr. Moschella

In writing you last week about a clearly untruthful statement sent me over your signature, stating that the FBI had disclosed to me all records relating to me that it has, I included copies of some correspondence on this subject of the recent past that was at hand here.

Inadvertently in making these copies I did not include a copy of my letter to you of last April 6. You did not respond to it.

It makes specific reference to the existence of FBI records that without question the FBI has that were not disclosed to me by then and have not been since then.

When I say "without question," as a reading of the enclosed copy will make clear, I am referring to the fact that the FBI itself disclosed to me the existence of the records that are relevant and remain withheld and to the fact that the FBI also disclosed such records to others from whom I obtained copies.

While there is nothing within my experience to encourage the hope that you, personally and as an agency, will decide to abide by the laws and provide what you withhold, I nonetheless do hope that you will.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
