

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

HAROLD WEISBERG,

v.

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE,

Appellant

Case No. 82-1229

9/14/83

AND CONSOLIDATED CASE NO. 82-1274

HAROLD WEISBERG,

v.

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE,

Appellant

Case No. 83-1722

AND CONSOLIDATED CASE NO. 83-1764

JOINT MOTION TO EXTEND BRIEFING SCHEDULE BY SEVEN DAYS

The parties to the above consolidated cases jointly move this Court for an extension of seven days in the briefing schedule set forth in this Court's order of August 29, 1983, so that their respective briefs would be due on the following dates:

Appellant's brief (Weisberg) to be served and filed: October 3, 1983

Appellee's/cross-appellant's brief (Department) to be served and filed: November 2, 1983

Appellant's reply brief and cross-appellee's brief (Weisberg) to be served and filed: December 2, 1983

Cross-appellant's reply brief (Department), if any, to be served and filed: December 16, 1983

Deferred Appendix: December 23, 1983

This short extension in the briefing schedule is requested on the ground that Weisberg's counsel's obligations in other cases preclude his being able to file his initial appeal brief in these cases on September 26, 1983, as now scheduled. For example, he is now deeply preoccupied with work on pretrial briefs and motions in a complicated case involving age discrimination, contract and negligence claims, Prouty v. Amtrak, Civil Action No. 83-1422. These obligations will not allow Weisberg's counsel to even begin work on his appeal brief in the instant cases until September 22, 1983. This will leave only two working days in which to go over the record, research the issues, and write his appeal brief. Yet these appeals are the result of seven years of complex litigation and involve a record of several thousand pages.

For the foregoing reasons, the parties request that this joint motion for a seven-day extension of the briefing schedule be granted.

Respectfully submitted,
