7/2/89

Dear Mr. Moschella,

In the second paragraph of my letter to you of June 25, 1989, there is what can be ambiguous in lines five and six.

"Without exception" does not refer to all the records just sent me.

Some had been.

It refers to inclusion within my much earlier requests and the forms of dishonesty relating to withholdings and noncompliance in general.

I am not familiar with your newer regulations and procedures so perhaps I should have noted on the envelope that a new request is included. It is on page 3.

I would appreciate knowing the extent of your presently claimed backlog for what used to be called non-project requests. This is a very simple ^{one} request that can be satisfied by providing copies of the requests referred to in page 3.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
