SUBJECT: WAIVER(s).

In regard: Ray v. Tenn. Cr. Indictment no. 16645;
Memphis, Tennessee (1968).

Dear Sir:

On advice of former counsel, Jack Kershaw, I executed a waiver in 1977 authorizing the F.B.I. to avail to, Mr. Harold Weisberg, Route-12, Frederick, Md., personal information about myself under the Freedom of Information Act.

The understanding was that the aforementioned would be kept confidential to the extent that Mr. Weisberg would not even furnish said information to me. However, since executing said waiver I've received letters from Weisberg indicating what all he had learned, eg. warehouses & my medical records. In addition, in a November 8, 1977, column by, Jack Anderson, Anderson alleges the F.B.I. (apparently in 1968) burglarized by sister, Carol Pepper, home. Mr. Anderson also reported in the same column that said, Mr. Weisberg, was developing information that said breakin did not take place. If in fact this (Weisberg's efforts on behalf of the bureau) is correct then he would not need my waiver to have access to the bureau's files.

Therefore please consider this letter a revocation of said waiver and any and all other waiver(s) I may have given, Mr. Weisberg.

In conclusion, if any of the information contained in consequence of material the F.B.I. has furnished Harold Weisberg is publicized, as a result of said waiver, please consider this letter a NOTICE of complaint against the Bureau and said Harold Weisberg for fraud & collusion.

Respectfully: James E. Ray #65477

cc: Mr. Harold Weisberg
Route-12
Frederick, Md. 21701.

cc: House select committee.
