GEORGE WYATT, 5327 Cameron Boulevard, New Orleans,
283-4448, telephonically contacted the writer at 2:50 p.m.,
1/13/69 and advised as follows:

At approximately 1:30 p.m., WYATT, while at his residence, received a telephone call from a male individual who refused to identify himself and who stated that something is going to happen to WYATT. This individual did not furnish any further details but did state that he wanted to meet with WYATT on 1/14/69, preferably in a bar across from the Roosevelt Hotel. WYATT stated that this individual sounded scared himself.

WYATT stated that the individual sounded a little bit like PERRY RAYMOND RUSSO, with whom he is acquainted. WYATT has no reason to believe that RUSSO would have any information in which WYATT would be involved.

The individual is to call WYATT on 1/14/69 and set up an exact time and place for the meeting. WYATT stated that he would meet with this individual if he calls back and confirms the appointment.

WYATT stated that while he realized the FBI could take no action in connection with the above matter, he merely wanted to let the Bureau know about the call and the fact that he would meet with this person if the appointment was confirmed.

WYATT was informed that his meeting with the individual would be entirely his own decision and WYATT stated he was well aware of it.
