

sat down in front of the desk ~~there~~, and Mr. Carter was sitting to my left. ~~We told him.~~ ~~We~~ explained to him, we wanted to talk to him. I took the notes ~~and wrote them down~~, and ~~then~~ from my notes I dictated this, <sup>which</sup> ~~what~~ we call an <sup>FD</sup> ~~FD~~-302.

Mr. Stern. This is your memorandum and not Agent Carter's?

Mr. Fain. That is right. I was more familiar with the case. I took the notes and did the dictation.

Mr. Stern. And the dictation was when?

Mr. Fain. July 2, 1962; transcribed July 6, 1962.

Mr. Stern. These dates appear where?

Mr. Fain. The date of dictation is shown on the lower right-hand corner; date of interview at the left, and date of transcription or typing was on July 6, upper right-hand corner.

Mr. Stern. What was Lee Harvey Oswald's demeanor in the course of this interview?

Mr. Fain. He was tense, kind of drawn up, and rigid. He is ~~kind of a little, kind of~~ wiry little fellow, kind of waspy.

Mr. Stern. Did he answer all of your questions?

Mr. Fain. No, he didn't. As indicated there in the fourth paragraph, he was ~~a little bit, if you will pardon my saying so,~~ a little <sup>insolent</sup> ~~snooty~~ in his answers. He was the type of individual <sup>who</sup> ~~that~~ apparently doesn't want to give out information about himself, and we asked him ~~as to~~ why he had made this trip to Russia, and he looked like it got under his skin, and I noticed he got white around the lips and ~~kind of~~ tensed up, and I understood <sup>it</sup>

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
