Mrs. Lee Harvey Oswald:

Dear Mrs. Cswald:

I am giving this note to Forrest Scrrels, a love time friend of mine, who is in the Secret Service to deliver to you.

I would be glad to give you $100 in each for the outer clothing, shoes, sox, sweater, white shirt and trousers your husbs were at the time he was shot.

Tussauds Wax Engern Museum at Niagara Falls, Canada, is building a scene of the shooting in the police basement. The wax figures will be life size and the museum wants to have the original clothing. This is the purpose of the offer. Of course, if we can not get the clothing he wore, it will be can duplicated otherwise.

You can answer me through the Secret Service men. If you have the clothing and wish the $100 send it in. If it is at the Miller Funeral Home, I could pick it up there atc Fort Worth. If it is with the FBI or Secret Service, or any other agency, your lette authorizing me to have it might be good enough to get the clothing.

Thank you very kindly,
