ASSASSINATION OF
PRESIDENT JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY
November 22, 1963,
Dallas, Texas

On October 12, 1978, [redacted] Dallas, Texas telephonically contacted the Dallas FBI Office inquiring about a memorandum submitted in the Dallas Office during the investigation of President Kennedy's assassination. He stated the memorandum had been declassified and had been obtained along with a large volume of other material under the Freedom of Information Act. He advised the memorandum set forth information that a Mr. Charles Bronson, Dallas, Texas had reported he might have photographs of the Texas Schoolbook Depository building at the time President Kennedy was shot. [redacted] inquired about the film and asked if he could view it. He was told that the Dallas Office is not presently in possession of this material. He was referred to the follow-up memorandum which was presumed to be in his possession along with the other material.

On November 14, 1978, [redacted] recontacted the Dallas Office and stated he had obtained the follow-up memorandum. He said he had also contacted Charles Bronson and with Bronson had viewed the eight millimeter movie film taken by Bronson at the time of President Kennedy's assassination. He said one roll of the film depicted home type movies of Bronson's family. At the end of this roll were some scenes in the vicinity of the Schoolbook Depository building, and at one point where Bronson had apparently moved the camera in a swinging motion, the Schoolbook Depository building could be seen. He advised that by slowing the film the sixth floor window could be seen but the picture was very blurred. A figure could be seen in the window and an additional figure which might have been crates or boxes could also be seen.

7c [redacted] stated Bronson was not aware that this portion of the film or that this scene was in fact photographs of the Schoolbook Depository building until he, [redacted] pointed this out to him. [redacted] said the remaining film in Bronson's possession did not show the Schoolbook Depository building.
