We have located additional documents of the Criminal Division pertinent to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, which are listed in the attached schedule. These documents are being released to you in part (except for documents being referred to other offices as indicated in the attached schedule). The Freedom of Information Act exemptions which apply to the documents released in part are 5 U.S.C. 552(b):

- (6) Documents which if disclosed would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of a third party;
- (7) Investigatory records compiled for law enforcement the disclosure of which would:
  - (C) Constitute an unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of a third party.

Pursuant to Department regulations, you have a right to appeal the deletions as a partial denial of your request. This appeal must be made within thirty days in writing and addressed to: Assistant Attorney General, Office of Legal Policy (Attention: Office of Information and Privacy) United States Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20530. The envelope and letter should be clearly marked, "FOIPA Appeal". If on appeal your request is denied, judicial review will thereafter be available to you in the district in which you reside or have your principal place of business or the district in which the records denied to you are located or the District of Columbia.

Sincerely,

DOUGLAS S. WOOD, Chief
