REMARKS

This is the document that I talked to you about. Martin H. Richman, formerly with the Office of Legal Counsel, requested by telephone in 1967 that we withhold the document from release on the ground that the letter from Mc Naughton was in the nature of a confidential letter of advice from an official of another department that was not related to this case.

to his official duties. The letter from DeBevoise is not involved.
Please call me when you have decided whether this should be released.
