Re: Appeal No. 90-0286
RLH:KJM

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

You appealed from the action of Miriam N. Nisbet on records of the Office of the Attorney General which were referred by the Federal Bureau of Investigation pursuant to your request for access to records pertaining to yourself.

As a result of discussions between Ms. Nisbet and members of my staff, a supplemental release of information on two pages is enclosed. In light of this fact and after careful consideration of your appeal, I have otherwise decided to affirm the action in this case. The documents responsive to your request are exempt from the access provision of the Privacy Act of 1974 pursuant to 5 U.S.C. §552a(j)(2). See 28 C.F.R. §16.96(a) (1988). Accordingly, your access rights are limited to those provided by the Freedom of Information Act.

Certain information was properly withheld from you pursuant to 5 U.S.C. §552(b)(6) and (7)(C). These provisions pertain to materials the release of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of third parties and to records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, the release of which could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of third parties. This information cannot be the subject of a discretionary release.

Judicial review of my action on this appeal is available to you in the United States District Court for the judicial district in which you reside or have your principal place of business, or in the District of Columbia, which is also where the records you seek are located.

Sincerely,

Richard L. Huff, Co-Director
Office of Information and Privacy
