Dear Mr. Weisberg:

This is in response to your letters of February 15 and March 18, 1990 to this Office complaining about Emil Moschella of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). We apologize for the delay in responding.

Based on my review of your submissions, I have determined that the Office of Professional Responsibility at the FBI is the appropriate office to inquire into your allegations. Accordingly, I have referred this matter to that office for appropriate action.

We appreciate your interest and patience.

Sincerely,
