

1/13/71

Clark, U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia
U.S. Courthouse
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir,

Attached hereto are the original and a copy of my Supplement to Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment^b, with Exhibit A, a copy of my letter to the General Services Administration, and a copy of my letter to Mr. Verdig.

As these letters show, it is my desire to protect my own interests while at the same time seeking to avoid unnecessary embarrassment to the Government. In a previous case, where I believed there was not an unreasonable time in my filing papers, there was a decision before these papers reached the judge. While I do not want this to happen again, I would also like to extend what I regard as a proper courtesy to the Government. Accordingly, I am mailing these papers to you in an effort to protect my rights and so that there will not be a decision without their consideration, while at the same time hoping it is possible for you to keep the option open for the Defendants to comply with what is sought in the Complaint, whereafter I would move to dismiss upon compliance.

I am having to act ~~now~~ ^{now} now, so I apologize if, though ignorance of the proper forms, I have departed from them.

If there is no alternative to the formal filing of these papers upon receipt that will protect my rights, then I ask that they be so filed. Mr. Verdig will be aware of this because I am also sending him a copy of this letter and that to the GSA.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg