Remyairtel, 3/2/64, enclosing two copies of tape recorded speech given by MARY LANE, the evening of 2/28/64, at Buffalo, N.Y.

Two copies, approximately two reels each, of pertinent remarks made by LANE at the press conference held in Room 760, Statler-Hilton Hotel, Buffalo, the afternoon of 2/28/64, from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. (referred to in referenced airtel) being forwarded Bureau under separate cover. (u)

This material was obtained by means of a concealed microphone installed immediately prior to the press conference.

The original recording was reviewed and remarks, deemed appropriate, were retaped on the enclosed (under separate cover) recordings. (u)

The Bureau will note that at the beginning there is approximately ten minutes of general conversation prior to the issuance of a statement by [redacted], Buffalo Branch, Workers World Party Executive Committee member, who was a member of the Committee sponsoring LANE's appearance. In some places on this tape there is also excessive background noises.
