Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Enclosed are 351 pages of documents, along with corresponding inventory worksheets, from the Dallas and New Orleans Field Office files concerning the assassination of President Kennedy. These documents are a portion of those which had been previously referred to other government agencies for determination as to their releasability in connection with your FOIA requests.

Some agencies have not as yet responded concerning the releasability of their information. Those agencies are listed below:

Central Intelligence Agency
Department of Justice - Criminal Division
Department of Justice - Executive Office for
U. S. Attorneys

Immigration and Naturalization Service
Internal Revenue Service

Mr. Harold Weisberg

We will undertake to contact these agencies with respect to these outstanding referrals and will forward the remaining documents, as processed, to you as soon as possible. Should you wish to litigate any withholding with respect to these documents, or with respect to the documents enclosed, you may of course do so in connection with the pending lawsuits to which the Department of Justice is the defendant.

Your continued patience and cooperation in this matter is appreciated.

Sincerely yours,
