

the later chapter in Isaiah 14: 4-23 containing the parable or proverb against the king of Babylon, how he that ruled the nations in anger is persecuted, and none hindereth... that since that certain one is laid down, it will be said, "No feller is come up against us." And there is then a period where of it is written, "The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet: they break forth into singing." We find no record of the earth being at rest and singing in all of history; so this is an event we may shortly expect when Johnson, the modern king of Babylon, is laid down in some manner... the LORD causing him to be taken out of the way, after permitting him to continue for a time... in which time he reveals himself as being the abomination that maketh desolate!

The way Johnson is the king of Babylon is that he chooses to obey Babylon, so they made him a king, even a ruler, and this happened in America... even began in Dallas, Texas. But Johnson is not the main character; he is simply a shadow or image of Eisenhower's. So one may expect when Johnson is laid low in some manner, even taken out of the way, then Eisenhower will be exposed in all of his wickedness, even he being that evil one described in Dan. 11:21, even the Wicked, the son of perdition (wherein I can pick out the name of "Denison"), prophesied of in II Thes. 2:3: then one who is the spirit of the Lord's mouth shall destroy that Wicked out of the limelight he has been basking in so favorably for so long; and Eisenhower is the one to be consumed with the brightness (brilliance of method) of the coming again of Jesus to rule in Israel --to rule even from the woman who is Israel, God's servant, upon whose shoulder the government of Jesus Christ's will rest... and not upon the shoulder of Luci Johnson! Thus by naming back upon Johnson his name named upon his younger daughter, even as she became a legal public figure-symbol, and when she changed her name to read more clearly "Luci" instead of "Lucy" then it was easy for me to comprehend that "Lucis father" was "Lucifer" in person!

(In this interpretation, compare that awful verse of scripture of Isa. 14:20-23 (with a son in law being as a son) with Isa. 47:3 concerning one ordered to vacate the White House, so to speak, because of becoming a widow and knowing the loss of children in one moment of one day... and the widow hoping she is the one who is the feminine eagle who would remain in the White House hoping to become the first woman president of the U.S.A., etc.... and no longer will she be called "The lady of kingdoms," it being that every State of the U.S.A. having a capitol therein, is a kingdom, and she now is the "First Lady," have deliberately and willfully agreeing to replacing Jacqueline Kennedy... even having knowledge with Stanley Marcus, as well as consulting with the fortune-teller: Jeane Dixon, et al.

(In view of the above prophecy, I watch closely and see when the Johnsons make a plane trip, wherein he, his two daughters, and his son in law are on the plane, and then suddenly for some reason Mrs. Johnson excuses herself, or is elsewhere... that is when and how I expect to see the prophecy fulfilled... like an explosion over the ocean in a plane... or a boat blowing up on a lake near Austin... something happening in which there will be no remains left of the President to bury... and it sounds much as if this would happen in the air, and his body blown to bits... and in such manner then his remains would be trodden upon as they settle to earth... his remains not being distinguishable. Also, in this regard, consider that if Johnson were killed, along with his two daughters and son in law, then Mrs. Johnson would inherit all the wealth... this would put her again in competition with Jacqueline Kennedy... and one may be certain that not all is peaceable between Mr. and Mrs. Johnson! Interesting to note how she made the trip with him recently and he said she was not bearing up well. Johnson spoke these words in Bangkok, and the picture taken of Mrs. Johnson in Thailand is horrible! Then note the picture taken of Mrs. Johnson driving last Sunday, with the president sitting beside her with a scowl on his face... notice her look as being angry and haughty... note the chin jutting out, and the shape of her nose (wonder if her nose had been operated on previously to hide her true identity)... then read the report of how Johnson took the wheel himself after leaving church, disobeying the doctors' orders. I imagine he became very provoked with his wife, and her arrogance of driving him! But most of all I urge one to keep in mind how Johnson treated his wife upon oomp lodging the oath as President in 1965... she expected him to turn and kiss her and say it was all due to her... and he scorned her openly; this followed with her fleeing to Camp David, and then in the same night Johnson's having to go to the hospital accompanied by his younger daughter; thus revealing the fight, so to speak, and then Mrs. Johnson's explaining she had caught a cold and left, not wishing to expose her husband. I think the truth is that he was drinking heavily and they were having it out about the manner in which he treated her at his inaugural... and I imagine she had much to put up with him all her married life... and at that particular moment of inauguration he felt that at last he had won on his own merits, and no longer had to bow down to Lady Bird! And she would not mind too much inheriting the Johnson fortune for herself! and stepping out on her own to prove how brilliant she is! )

Now back to Luke 21:24, "And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled." One should note a long period of time elapsing, as denoted by the colon.