

"You have not asked my advice, nor yet obeyed what I have written to you as "Thus saith the LORD." I have no reason to believe you will... Save I know how long-suffering God is for His mercy endureth forever. There is no place or peace for the wicked... and ulcers result in worry which creates the acid condition in the stomach which progressively grows worse, unless one makes a complete turn-about, converting from wickedness to the path of righteousness.

"In the Bible there is a record showing the custom of those days. A husband who accused his wife of adultery or fornication too her to the priest in the temple, presenting his charge. The priest then stooped down and gathered up dirt where the couple stood, mixed it with water, and gave to the wife to drink. To refuse to drink showed the woman guilty, thus worthy of death. If she drank it, and her flesh remained whole, she was not guilty, and all who saw her afterwards knew that she had done no wrong, as falsely accused. But, if guilty, then her flesh became diseased, her condition noted by all, and she quickly died. The knowledge of guilt caused her stomach condition.

"Today, I would carry this custom further, using the same procedure. Only, in addition, when the wife shewed forth no guilt of wrong-doing as accused, I would then require the husband to drink the same kind of potion, and see what the result be?! If marriages were taken seriously... and later divorce applied for... I recommend the old custom in new form be applied!

"Likewise, when even a State is "versus" an innocent person, like "State of Texas vs. Jonnie Mae Shaulter," "vs. Jonnie Mae Eckman," "vs. Johnnie Mae Hackworthe," and even the Governor of Texas stating how he holds in his Governor's office a file on the supposed-demented person, and such file be used as a type of threat: I am of the opinion the State Legislature would have the duty of investigation, ordering retribution, etc. Even such presence of file being as dirt on the floor, present to condemn!

"Then, following through, they (Legislature) ascertain correctly why former and present Presidents illegally caused such charged to be lodged against such person residing within the boundary of Texas. And what if such person merely is holding up a viper (V.I.P. er) in her feminine golden eagle beak (many in one) for the whole world to see. Would the final verdict be one of "guilty of insanity" or would it be time for a reversal of charge, being "Johnnie Mae Hackworthe vs. State of Texas", and Texas, via the Governor, et al, be found guilty of insanity? And permanent confinement ordered... maybe even the death sentence ordered, because of the planned violence committed so often upon the person of Rev. Johnnie Mae Hackworthe, the wife of God, to whom He gave His Blessed Son, Jesus Christ, in His promised coming again! And anyone touching such anointed of the LORD, even the Prophets of the LORD, who is that holy mountain of truth, is guilty of death: even as no one could touch the mountain upon which formerly Moses went to receive the Commandments, and live!

"You would not feign illness of ulcer, would you?, to escape your illegal duties you assumed regarding HemisFair in San Antonio, since you did win re-election as Governor, and have been charged with holding two offices... soon to be questioned by Legislature... even as your absence was noted so vividly when the U. of T. tragedy occurred, and you were not on duty, being in South America for HemisFair, neglecting your duties as Governor of Texas?

Truly, truly, in the name of Immanuel,

Johnnie Mae Hackworthe
