I have known Jack Ruby about 8 years. I first lived with Jack in 1962 for 5 or 6 months at the Marsalis Pl. or Aras apartments. I have lived with Jack this time since November of 1963. Early last Saturday morning about 3:00 AM Jack woke me up. We discussed about President Kennedy being killed. Jack told me that he had been one of the first ones to run a ad in the paper stating his club would be closed Friday, Saturday and Sunday in memory of the President. Jack said it would hurt his money wise but he just could'nt open up with the President dead. I could tell Jack was taking the President's death hard and he kept repeating he felt sorry for the President's family. Jack was too sad to go to bed and he ask me to go out and have coffee with him. We went to the Southland hotel for coffee and I had some coffee and Jack had some grapefruit juice. He acted like he was stunned and shocked and we went on home. That was the first time I ever saw tears in his eyes. I got out of bed Saturday morning and woke Jack up about 10:00 or 10:30 AM. We wat hed TV and had coffee. He was still sad and very sorry for the President's family. I had some things to do so I left the house around noon. I went back home about 7:30 PM and Jack was'nt there. I ate a bit and went back out. I got back home about 10:30 Saturday evening and Jack was home. Jack told me he had to go to the club and check up on something. I went on to bed. When I got up this morning about 9:00 AM Jack was sleeping. Jack heard me walking around and he get up. I could tell Jack was brooding and still shook up. We watched a church sermon on T. V. and Jack kept repeating about the President's family and how sorry he felt for Mrs Kennedy. Around 10:30 AM he told me he was going to take Sheba, his dog down to the club where the rest of his dogs were. Jack then left and I did'nt see him any more. I went down to the Estwall on Main street and had some coffee. While I was at the Estwall I heard Jack Ruby had shot Oswald. I have seen Jack's pistol and the last time I saw it was Thursday night.
