REPORT ON OFFICER'S DUTIES IN REGARDS TO OGNALD'S HURDER L. C. GRAVES - #702

Sunday, Nevember 74, 1963, was the day set for the transfer of Lee Marvey Oswald to the County Jail. The time set for the transfer was 10:00 M. Shortly before 9:30 AN. J. R. Leavelle, C. H. Dhority, and I brought Oswald down from the fifth floer tail for final questioning by Capt. Frite. Agents forrel and Kelly from the fearet Service. Others present during the questioning were Wr. Holmes from the U.S. Post Office Department. Detestives L. D. Montgomery, C. H. Dhority, J. R. Leavelle, and I. Chief Curry was present only a few minutes at the beginning of the questioning and at the end just prior to Oswald's removal to the basement. Before leaving our office with Oswald, Capt, Frits instructed J. R. Leavelle to handcuff his left arm to the right arm of Oswald. I was to walk by Oswald's left side. holding his left arm. Osweld's hands were handsuffed together in front of him. Bot, Leavelle, Oswald, and I were escorted from this office via the jail elevator to the jail office by Capt. Prits. It. Swain, and Det. L. D. Montgomery. At the tail office door that leads into the hall, we storped for a few seconds until Capt. Prits and Lt. Swain made sure the hall-way was elear. We got the all elear sign and made our way through the hall to the edge of the ramp where we had neused momentarily avaiting the arrival of war car, when suddenly out of the surging line of semera men and glaring cemera lights, Jack Ruby sprang forward and fired one round from a pistol into the stonech of Lee Hervey Oswald before I could grab his pistol and dieers his.

Osweld was immediately placed in an O'Weak antrulance and rushed to Parkland Hospital, where he underwant surgery within 10 minutes after his
