- Do you know a Mr. Adrien High? à.
- Yos. I balieve that he lives in Oklahora City. A.
- Q. Mrs. Grant, did you talk to your brother Jack on the day of the vicit of Proddent Kennedy to Dallas?
- Ao Tes.

Ň.,

- 0. Mas this conversation by telephone or in person?
- Ά. The first contact was by telephone.
- Q. Mrs Grant, would you describe your prother's conversation?
- To the best of my memory, my brother called no early in the morning and asked no 1f I had seen the morning newspaper. I replace that I had, but I did not know what he was referring to. Within a few minutes, it became apparent to me that he was referring to a full page ad in this isone of the Dellas Hers which contained a series of pointed and insulting questions directed to the President of the U.S. by brother nonthoused that this srilele was signed by a percenthose name was obviously of Jovish origin and I believe that the name was Bernard Weissman. My brother was highly incensed that such an article had appeared on the date of the Procedent's arrival in Dollas and particularly that the article was signed by a Jew. 0. Did you read the article later on?
- A. Yes.
- Can you remember anything from the article? Q.
- A. Yos, I believe it stated, "welcome Hr. Prosident, why did you send wheat to Russia when you know the Army travels on its stomach", also, something pertaining to Vict Non and Cuba.
- Q. What was said about Viet Nam and Cuba?
- I do not remember. Λ.
- Q. that was in the article that you reacher?
- Fact Finding Committee, signed Bornaud Meissran, and I noticed the black border ٨. air cround it, and I do know that this is the came article that Jack should me
 - then he came to the house.